United Nations
Assembly Faces
Grave Decision

Must Decide Today On Including Religious Freedom In Agenda

HUNGARY'S ACTIONS
MAY BE PROBED

(BULLETIN)
FLUSHING MEADOWS,
N. Y., April 12.—(INS)—The Scandinavian bloc of states staged a surprise move in the United Nations today by calling on the general assembly to keep hands off the imprisonment of Balkan religious leaders.

Speaking on behalf of Denmark, Norway, Iceland and Sweden, Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen told the 58-nation plenary session that the case of Hungary's Josef Cardinal Mindszenty and of 15 Bulgarian church leaders should be dealt with under the provisions of the peace treaties with Hungary and Bulgaria.

FLUSHING MEADOWS,
N. Y., April 12.—The cases of Hungary's imprisoned Cardinal Mindszenty and Bulgarian Protestant leaders face an acid test today in the United Nations General Assembly.

The 58-nation major U. N. body has to decide during the day whether to accept the political committee's recommendation that the question of human rights and religious freedom in the two Balkan lands be included in the agenda.

See Majority Certain
A majority is certain for such a step, despite the anticipated bitter opposition by the Soviet bloc.

The political committee made the recommendation after combining two original proposals on the subject submitted by Bolivia and Australia. The resolution before the assembly now reads:

"Having regard to the provisions of the charter and of the peace treaties, the question of the observance in Bulgaria and Hungary of human rights and fundamental freedoms including questions of religious and civil liberties, with special reference to recent trials of church leaders."

The committee also recommended that the Ad Hoc Committee receive the item, thus expediting its consideration.

A U. S. spokesman disclosed that

We saw our first dandelion bloom, Monday afternoon, on Butler avenue. In the 700 block. It was on a plant that had struggled and grown from a crevice in the front concrete steps of a home, near the ground, facing south.

We mentioned a week ago about some large buds on a dogwood tree, quite full and bursting, on a lawn, corner of Croton and East Washington. They have remained static ever since, not fully opened, now turning brown and dying.

Private pilots and other air adventurers turned out in fairly good numbers at the airport on Monday, taking advantage of the fine flying weather. Quite a number of cross country flights were in progress.

Grass fires continue to keep county volunteer fire departments on the hop. Monday's good outdoor weather spurred the cleaning up of garden sites and fence rows with the collected leaves and brush being burned. Shenango Volunteer firemen responded to a grass and brush fire in the vicinity of the

Unprotected Well Dangers Found Here

Following death of three year old child, Kathy Fiscus, in a California well, come reports that danger conditions of this nature exist in New Castle, within the city limits. What happened in Cal-
Steinbrink, points to a well, four foot across at the top and so deep you can't see the bottom. It is easy to see in the picture how much protection there is over the well. And just 10 feet from the above well covered. These two are only a short distance from where children play. Our children! Others are also reported in this area.

Total Eclipse Of Moon Scheduled For Tonight

By LEONARD S. SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, April 12.—This will be the moon's night out. Out, that is, like a light, in total eclipse for the first time in four years.
Actually the moon doesn't have a thing to do about it. The whole show is caused by the earth getting itself between the sun and the moon and cutting off the moon's light source.

All of North and South America will be able to see the phenomena with the naked eye. And that will satisfy most everybody except astronomers who will use the occasion to check up on the speed, motion and relative distances of the earth, the sun and the moon.

To the layman's naked eye here's what will happen:
Starts At 8:32 P. M.

The moon will start sliding into the fringe of the earth's shadow at 8:32 p. m. (EST). By 9:28 it will have entered the direct shadow and exactly an hour later you'll see nothing but a reddish glow, caused by the refraction of some of the sunlight.

The eclipse will be total until 12:54 a. m. and the moon will come out from under at 1:51.
New York, which always goes for

Pardon Board To Give Consideration To Leopold's Case
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 12.— (INS)—Members of the Illinois board of pardons met in Springfield today to determine the future of Nathan Leopold, one of the two thrill slayers of fourteen-year-old Bobby Franks in 1924.

Leopold, along with 44 other prisoners, won consideration of a possible shortening of his imprisonment for volunteering to act as "guinea pig" in experiments with a new drug used in curing a dangerous type of tropical malaria during the war.

The five board members will review each of the prisoner's cases and decide whether to recommend their sentences be cut.

Executive clemency already has been granted 100 of the 445 prisoners who participated in the experiments.

Two Dead, Four Hurt In Cincinnati Fire
CINCINNATI, O., April 12.— (INS)—Two young children were burned to death and four other persons were injured, the father critically, early today as fire gutted their four-room suburban Cincinnati home.

Madeira fire officials said Billy and Tommy Ruud, aged 5 and 4 respectively, were burned beyond recognition when flames ripped through their frame home after their father, Ray, tried to kindle a fire with kerosene.

Britain Faces Expansion Of Nationalization

British Labor Party Plans
New Steps In Socialization and Controls

TO PRESENT PLANS
AT JUNE 6 MEETING

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, April 12.—Britain's Labor Party, unperturbed by recent county council electoral losses, produced its bold blue-print for another six years of power today—a program of increased socialization and government controls.

To Be Presented June 6
The program, approved by the cabinet and top labor party leaders, is to be presented to the full Labor Party conference at Blackpool June 6. It calls for nationalization of the sugar, cement, water supplies, and insurance businesses, in that order.

In addition, the program plans to nationalize "suitable" mineral enterprises not already affected by the trend, the shipbuilding industry—"if private enterprise fails"— and the chemical industry—"if it becomes in the vital national interest."

The program was published for Britons today with the trumpeting declaration that it heralds "the finest age in our history."

Other parts of the program provide for expansion of the government's steady march into fields previously left to private capital.

Will Continue Plans
It declares that the government will continue "and increase" bulk purchasing of commodities, and will continue to act as a wholesaler for the meat industry. This, the program declares, will reduce the cost of production and distribution, and eliminate price rings and rigged markets.

Controls over capital investment, over the distribution of industry and industrial equipment, and building, and over foreign exchange are to be continued.

At the same time, the plan calls for an increase in the public ownership of land—"as it becomes expedient"—and the establishment of new public enterprises to compete with existing enterprises which are shown "inefficient."

On the one issue which finds Labor and Conservative leaders in agreement—foreign policy—the program promised to continue the present course.

Funeral Plans

Final Rites For Girl Who Met Tragic Death Set For Wednesday

SAY SUFFOCATION CAUSED DEATH
SAN MARINO, Calif., April 12.
(INS)—Preparations for Kathy Fiscus' funeral were completed today and the child's parents asked sympatizers who plan to send flowers to donate money to the Los Angeles Children's hospital instead.

In a statement issued through Dr. Paul Hanson, David Fiscus and his wife, Alice, said:
"Flowers last such a short time.
If an equivalent amount of money were sent to the Children's hospital of Los Angeles, we feel that our little Kathy's untimely death might be the cause of saving some child for a useful life."

Buying 'Spree' May Be In Offing
Government Economists Check Heavier And Earlier Easter
Buying In Nation

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(INS)— High government economists checked heavier and earlier Easter shopping today and predicted that a buying spree may be in the offing.

Their forecasts are backed by the latest Federal Reserve board figures on nationwide department store sales which show that the public appears to be taking advantage of lower prices.

The FRB's department store sales index at the two-weeks-before Easter mark this year was nearly 8 per cent above the comparable period in 1948.

Easter arrived in March 28 last year, but comes on April 17 this time. The index stood at 279 on March 13, 1948, compared to 301 on April 2, 1949. The index uses the 1935-39 period for its base of 100.

Bandit Talked Out
Of $1000 By Women

PITTSBURGH, April 12.—(INS)—
Two women clerks of a northside Pittsburgh finance office were credited today with talking a lone hooded man out of $1,000 loot.
Police said the gunman escaped with $200 after ransacking a safe and two cash drawers.

When he asked Virginia Schaaf, 18, and Mrs. Edward Bochak, 23, what was in a second safe, they told him only papers. Apparently believing them, the holdup man fled.

New Evidence
In Milwaukee
Girl Slaying

MILWAUKEE, April 12.—(INS)— Milton Babich, admitted slayer of his bride's sister, has a preliminary hearing today and the Milwaukee county district attorney says the victim's "best friend" has sealed his doom.

The hearing was set before District Judge Harvey L. Neelan to determine whether the state has enough evidence to try the 19-year-old Babich for first degree murder in the death of Patricia Birmingham.

District Attorney William J. Mc-Cauley said the 16-year-old girl's "best friend," Carol Leszynski, who was apprehended by Kenosha police last night after being reported missing from her suburban West Allis home, had given highly damaging evidence.

McCauley said the 16-year-old girl had revealed to Kenosha police a startling story which "just hammers another nail in the state's contention that Patricia's slaying was premeditated."

Li. Max Kraemer of the Kenosha police quoted Carol as saying:
"Milton started to take liberties with Pat, and Pat said she would tell Kathleen (Babich's 17-year-old sister)."

"I don't know how long this went on, but two or three days before Pat disappeared she told me Milton had threatened to do something to me if I told Kathy."

"Pat came to me and told me what Milton had done, of his threats, and asked me what she should do."

Confided In Each Other Kraemer said Carol told him she and the 16-year-old Patricia were "best friends." Both girls were pupils at West Allis Central High School and Carol said they frequently confided in each other over their problems.

Kraemer said he learned that

Report Five Year Old Boy Kidnaped;
Then Ransomed

LOS ANGELES, April 12.— (INS)—The Los Angeles Examiner reported today that the 5-year-old son of a wealthy Beverly Hills, Cal., dress shop owner was kidnaped and ransomed for $33,000 yesterday.

The victim was identified as Joey Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goodman.

The Examiner said it learned of the abduction only a few hours after the boy was returned safe and unharmed to his parents last night and that a widespread search was launched for the kidnappers immediately by Beverly Hills police and federal agents.

The Examiner said the abduction was carefully planned and boldly executed and that the child was held by kidnappers from 8:15
a. m. yesterday until the ransom was paid and young Joey released at about 2 p. m.

The abductors reportedly picked up the child at his home through a ruse under the pretext they were to take him to the Page Military Academy, where he is a student.

Thwarted In Effort To Jump Off Bridge

WALNUT CREEK, CALIF.—Ex-paratrooper Bob Niles, 22, who was thwarted about two weeks ago when he attempted to jump off the Golden Gate bridge, shows off his "eagleman" suit for his latest stunt. Niles, on Sunday went up in a plane, and bailed out at 6500 feet. He dropped to about 500 feet in a free dive, before opening his retarding chute, then his second chute at 200 feet. His leap was successful, except that he missed the stadium where he was supposed to land by two miles. The stunt netted him $200.

Truman Begins Fifth Year In White House

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 12.—
President Truman began his fifth year in the White House today firmly convinced that foundations have been laid which will bring enduring world peace within the next two years.

Mr. Truman feels that because of the continuing and increasing stream of American aid to Europe the next 24 months will wipe out the fearsome specter of a third world war.

Took Office Four Years Ago
Just four years ago, on April 12, 1945, Mr. Truman, hastily sworn into the highest office of the land when President Roosevelt died at Warm Springs, Ga.

America still was in the shooting war. It was President Truman who, in July 1945, made the grim decision to use the atom bomb. Then followed the long period parleys looking toward world peace.

The United Nations was founded, but the obstructionist tactics of Russia seemed to nullify many of its good works.

The principal feature in the years since Mr. Truman took office has been the "cold war" with Russia. The President has warned

Birmingham Police Seek Child Killer
Investigating Possible Connection Between Killing And Kidnaping Case

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 12.— (INS)—Birmingham police are investigating today a possible connection between the slaying of nine-year-old Phillis Dean Carver and the kidnapping of Bobby Howell, 4, who later was found wandering in woods near Birmingham.

The man who Bobby said "bought me some candy and gave me a ride" was the object of a police hunt.

The body of the pretty Carver child was found in an area about 20 miles west of Birmingham after an all-night hunt yesterday.

Her throat had been slashed.
Assistant state toxicologist C. D.
Brooks said there was no indication of criminal assault.

Youth Is Killed, Second Injured
In Auto Crash
SEWICKLEY, Pa., April 12.— (INS)—Sewickley police reported today that a Weirton, W. Va., youth was killed and a Glenwillard youth was injured when their car overturned on route 51, in Moon township, Pa.

Dead was Ronald Erwin, 21. Eugene Fowler, 20, driver of the automobile, was injured. Fowler told officers another car forced him off the road and into a hillside.

Truman Transmits New Atlantic Pact To Senate
For Action Today

LONG STEP TOWARD PEACE, SAYS TRUMAN

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 12.—
President Truman today asked the Senate to ratify the North Atlantic Pact as assurance that the democratic nations can resist "terror and oppression."

The chief executive transmitted the treaty to the Senate with a strongly-worded message which declared:

"The people of the North Atlantic community have seen solemn agreements designed to assure peace and the rights of small nations, broken one by one and the people of those nations deprived of freedom by terror and oppression."

"They are resolved that their nations shall not, one by one, suffer the same fate."

Soviet Not Mentioned
Mr. Truman, who called the pact a long step toward "peace with justice," did not mention the Soviet Union by name in his emphatic statement of the necessity for the mutual defense alliance.

In his reference to "solemn agreements, broken by one" he made it unmistakably clear that the treaty is designed as a bulwark against the "terror and oppression" of Communist aggression.

Mr. Truman, who asked speedy Senate action on the historic defense agreement on the fourth anniversary of his accession to the presidency, pointed out significantly:

"The oceans to our east and west
no longer protect us from the reach of brutality and aggression."
The chief executive declared that the alliance is within the fabric of the United Nations charter and under scores the peaceful aims of the United States and the other signatory powers.

Mr. Truman told the Senate:
For Peace And Security
"This treaty is an expression of the desire of the people of the United States for peace and security, for the continuing opportunity to live and work in freedom."

"Events of this century have taught us that we cannot achieve peace independently."
"The world has grown too small,
The oceans to our east and west
no longer protect us from the
reach of brutality and aggression."

"We have also learned—learned

Police Still Stop
Overloaded Trucks

State police today continued their drive on overloaded trucks on Pennsylvania highways.

The Rochester barracks reported a crew operating in Chippewa township on Route 51 arrested eight truckers for violations early today.

Twenty-seven were charged with violating the weight laws in the Rochester area last Saturday.

In the Washington, Pa., area 15 truckers were arrested yesterday.
State police in other western Pennsylvania areas said crews were out with portable scales and would stop all violators.

OTTE-BLEWITT SPRING WEDDING

First Lutheran church in Pittsburgh was the scene of a lovely spring wedding Saturday afternoon, April 9, when Miss Marjorie Dora Otte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Otte, of 9038 Frankstown road, Pittsburgh, became the bride of Ralph Harold Blewitt Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs.
Ralph Harold Blewitt, of 430
Laurel blvd., New Castle.

The couple exchanged vows at 2 o'clock p. m., in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. Rev. D. Stackel officiated at the double ring ceremony.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin, fashioned with a neckline of sheer illusion and a bertha of Brussels lace. The gown buttoned down the back in tiny satin covered buttons and was styled with a bustle in a bow effect. Her veil of French illusion fell from a halo of orange blossoms, made of tiny seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom, and she carried a modern colonial bouquet of white roses, white snapdragons and white carnations.

Miss Eleanor Otte, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was attired in a blue taffeta gown, styled with two rows of ruffles on the skirt. She wore a small picture hat which had an open crown and small orange blossoms on the inside of the brim. She carried a modern colonial bouquet of yellow roses, snapdragons and carnations.

Bridesmaids, the Misses Jean Smith, cousin of the bride, and Helen Suckling wore pink taffeta gowns, which were styled with a draped effect at the side. They wore hats identical to the maid of honor's and carried modern colonial bouquets of pink roses, snapdragons and carnations.

Robert Blewitt, of New Castle, served his brother as best man and the ushers were Raymond Salmon and Richard Horchler, also of New Castle.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a reception held in the home of the bride's parents for 150 guests.

The newlyweds have dispensed with a wedding trip for the present and have taken up residence in Sigel, Pa., where both Mr. and Mrs.
Blewitt are members of the faculty of Sigel high school.

Mrs. Blewitt, a graduate of Wil-kensburg high school, attended University of Pittsburgh and is a graduate of Clarion State Teachers College.

Mr. Blewitt is a graduate of New Castle high school and of Clarion State Teachers College. He also spent 36 months as a P. M. in the U. S. Navy, 28 months of which were spent in the South Pacific.

ALICE REYNOLDS BETROTHAL TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Reynolds, Wilmington road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice Louise Reynolds, to Gerald Wayne Lenz, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Herman M. Lenz, New Castle, R. D.
5.

Miss Reynolds, a graduate of New Castle senior high school, is employed at the New Castle Store as hosiery buyer.

Mr. Lenz, also an alumnus of New Castle senior high school, is a Penn State student in engineering, being located at Slippery Rock State Teachers college this year.

Wedding plans are incomplete.

The Bakers Dozen

The Bakers Dozen held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Joan McConnell, Corner Oak and Walnut streets. The group met at 7 p. m. and drove to Youngstown where they enjoyed a theatre party.

Returning to the home of Mrs.
McConnell they enjoyed a delicious lunch served by the hostess, aided by special guest for the evening Mrs. Barbara Cornumpf.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Francis Book, 839 Morton street, on Wednesday, May 11.

READING CIRCLE ELECTS OFFICERS

Members of the Reading Circle met Monday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. Frank Eicholtz, of 417 Laurel blvd., for a very enjoyable meeting. Mrs. Clement Clausen, a member, who now resides in Kendall, Florida, was present and Miss Lorraine Hook was welcomed as a special guest.

Mrs. Ira Ramsey opened the meeting at 2:30 o'clock with the flag salute, after which she welcomed the guests. The following officers were then elected for the coming year: president, Mrs. Brant Sankey; first vice president, Mrs.
George Morris; second vice president, Mrs. T. L. Nixon; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Mackey; treasurer,
Mrs. David Tomkins; assistant secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Dean Staley and scholarship secretary, Mrs. Laura Parker.

Mrs. Ramsey then turned the meeting over to Mrs. David Tomkins, program chairman, who in turn introduced Mrs. H. D. Harlan, who spoke on "Headresses Through the Ages". She spoke of styles dating from the Egyptian styles of 2000 B. C. and came up through the ages to the early eighteenth century. In many instances the styles proved to be very amusing.

Roll call response was to name a family heirloom and the members each gave a little of the article's history which proved very interesting.

The ladies will hold their Spring
Tea, May 9, in the home of Mrs.
J. F. Rentz, of 219 Winter avenue.

SILVER WEDDING EVENT IS MARKED

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Wimer, R. D.
4, Harlansburg road, observed their silver wedding anniversary by holding "open house" for friends and relatives on April 9 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mate Mc-Kim, Portersville, R. D. 2.

Approximately 100 guests called during the evening to extend best wishes to the couple. The honorees received many lovely gifts and cards. Refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a silver bell.

Aides in serving were Mrs. Floyd Smock, Mrs. Wilson Booher, Mrs.
Edgar Nelson, Mrs. Rachael Mc-Claymonds, Lillian Smock, Marion Booher and Gracie Nelson. The Wimers are parents of two children, Mrs. Kenneth Reed, R. D. 4, and Gerald Wimer. They have one granddaughter, Linda Lee Reed.

Families were guests Monday evening when the Mercer class entertained at a tureen dinner in Highland United Presbyterian church. A tasty dinner was served at attractive tables set in the dining room, with places being arranged for 55 guests. H. L. Marvin, assistant teacher, offered grace.

Following serving, George Detwiler served as accompanist for singing enjoyed by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. George Detwiler,
Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. McCoy,
Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boak were responsible for the informal evening.

The class will assemble in the church Monday evening, May 9.

of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs will be held on Tuesday, April 19, in the First Methodist church. An executive board meeting will be held at 12:30 o'clock and following at 1 o'clock a delightful luncheon will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Wilber E. Miller, president of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs, has been fortunate to obtain as the principal speaker of the afternoon Mrs. D.
Ray Murdock of Greensburg, Pa., whose citizenship program has earned her the General Federation of Women's clubs award for the best statewide program.

Mrs. Murdock is chairman of the citizenship department of the Pennsylvania Federation of Womens clubs and has been a wonderful guide in women's organizations for many years. Her subject for this meeting in Lawrence county will be "Work With United States Citizenship Today".

The instrumental music department of New Castle high school will present the musical portion of the program. The New Castle Woman's club will be the host club.
Mrs. Edward Everett is program chairman.

Reservations may be made with the club presidents or with Mrs. W.
E. Miller.

JOHNSON-LOVE CHURCH WEDDING

Miss Dorothy Mae Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie B. Johnson, Crowe street, R. D. 6, was united in marriage to Arthur Lee Love, son of Mr. and Mrs.
John Love, New Castle, R. D. 3, Saturday afternoon, April 9, at 3:30 o'clock.

Reading the double ring service, Rev. J. Calvin Rose officiated at the ceremony in the presence of a group of relatives and friends at Second United Presbyterian church.

The bride was attractive in a street-length dress of poudre blue crepe, fashioned with fitted bodice, jewelry necklace, long sleeves and bertha collar. She wore a flower trimmed pink hat and navy blue shoes. Her shoulder corsage was of pink rosebuds, and her bracelet was the groom's gift.

Mrs. Eleanor Moltz, the bride's sister, served as matron of honor.
Her street-length dress of pink taffeta was styled with fitted bodice and full skirt. She wore contrasting accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

James Graham acted as best man for his brother-in-law, while Burl and James Johnson, brothers of the bride, ushered.

Appropriate nuptial music was offered by Mrs. Jacob Jordan, organist.

A reception for relatives and close friends followed in the home of the bride's parents.

Upon returning from an automobile trip to Washington, D. C., the young couple will be at home to friends at 330 Park avenue.

The new Mrs. Love, a graduate of New Castle Senior High school, is employed in the office of a Sherwin-Williams company.

Mr. Love is an employee of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, where he is an electrician.

Russia Moves Up Date Of Maneuvers

Early Maneuvers In Germany Are Looked Upon As Demonstration Against Defense Pact

BERLIN, April 12.—(INS)—Soviet Russia moved up the date of spring military maneuvers in Germany today. Some western circles said the early maneuvers are planned as a demonstration against the North Atlantic Defense Pact.

Beginning next week, 400 thousands Russian troops comprising 50 divisions will mass in the most powerful show of Soviet armed might outside of Russia since the end of the war.

Plans call for exercises in the northern areas of the Soviet zone and a "drive to the south," ending with gigantic forces of infantry and artillery poised along the United States zonal border.

In connection with the maneuvers, the Soviets are reported stepping up armament production in the Soviet zone of Germany, including the use of several former Nazi underground factories, that have been reconsecrated.

One huge stockpile is reported inside the Pilsberg mountain near the Elbe river which France has defined as the first line of western European defense.

Altoona Man Shoots Wife, Wounds Self

ALTOONA, Pa., April 12.—John Kirstner, 36, was in a critical condition at Altoona hospital today from a self-inflicted bullet wound below the heart, after he shot and killed his wife, Katherine, 35, in a downtown cafe early today.

Bartender Red Knipple told police he, Kirstner, a waitress, and Kirstner were alone in the cafe. He said the shooting occurred in a booth, and there was no apparent reason for it.

The Kirstners were married last December. She had three children from a previous marriage.

Kirstner has been working in the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Altoona.

Many Grass Fires Reported Monday

City firemen were kept extremely busy Monday extinguishing grass fires, carelessly set in different parts of the city. Fire Chief H. F. Steinbrink reports.

Last evening firemen were called to Elizabeth street; in the rear of the Max Ludwig company on West Washington street, near the Pennsylvania railroad tracks on East Clayton street; while yesterday afternoon calls were received from Sampson street, North Cedar street and at Jefferson and Garfield.

The port of New York handled 42 per cent of U. S. imports and 42 per cent of its exports in 1947, both measured by dollar values.

The total number of children affected by divorce each year in the United States is estimated between 150,000 and 200,000.

He was born in New Castle on February 4, 1890, the son of Hudson and Minnie McDermott. His father is survived by his mother and a sister, the father residing in Youngstown and the sister in Akron, O.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the County Home with Rev. Francisco P. Sulmonetti in charge. Interment will be in the County Home cemetery.

Friends will be received this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Pascarella Funeral Time

A requiem mass for Mrs. Maria Pascarella, will be offered in St. Vitus church, Wednesday at 8:30 a. m., and burial will follow in St. Vitus cemetery.

The body is at the DeCarbo funeral home, East Lutton at Cunningham, where friends may call anytime this afternoon.

Miss Cripps Funeral

Funeral services for Miss Nettie M. Cripps, 1103 Highland avenue, were held Monday at 2 p. m. in the Leyde mortuary, Dr. R. F. Galbreath in charge.

Burial was in Oak Park cemetery with pallbearers being Charles C. Andrews, Charles Andrews, Earl Jarrett, Perry Reher, Joseph Hoyle and Everett Arrow.

Allegro Funeral

Funeral services for Merle Allegro, was offered with a requiem mass Monday at 9 a. m. in the Holy Cross church, West Pittsburgh, Rev. Fr. Beck officiating. He also conducted the committal at St. Lucy's church cemetery.

Pallbearers were members of the boy scouts who attended in a body and were also honorary pallbearers: John Papa, Thomas Demonic, Peter Vessella, Jack Paschovich, Mike Banko, Sam Dantico, Patsy Fragle, and Mike Kapraly.

Schwartz Funeral

Funeral services for Frank Schwartz of 26 Miller street, were held this morning at 9 o'clock, in the Noga funeral home, followed by a requiem mass at 9:30 o'clock in the Holy Trinity Polish National Catholic church. Rev. Fr. Edward C. Kuzminski was in charge.

The deceased was also survived by three grandchildren.

Burial took place in the Holy Trinity cemetery with Andrew Wrona, John Bodnar, Joseph Nych, John Fenchak, John Duda and Edward Latos serving as pallbearers.

Dickson Funeral

Funeral services for the late John W. Dickson of 907 East Washington street, were conducted from the Cunningham funeral home, East Washington at Chestnut, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. Oliver W. Hurst, pastor of First Baptist church officiating.

Pallbearers were: Philip Dickson, John Untch, Richard Miller, Romeo Delhame, Glenn Pearsall, Robert Hartuff.

Interment was in Oak Park cemetery.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF MOON SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT

phenomena, is expected to use its latest roof tops to see the moon show. Such observation spots as the tower on the 105-floor Empire State building and the Park Sheraton hotel's "camera loft" overlooking Central Park, promise to have astronomers on hand to tell spectators what is happening, and why.

Proof World Is Round

Robert R. Coles, the associate curator of the Hayden Planetarium in New York, explained that an eclipse is conclusive proof, among other things, that the world is round.

And in case you miss the show tonight, there will be another next October 6, when the earth, traveling 66,600 miles-per-hour, and the moon, laying along at a mere 2,000 miles-per-hour, again come within 222,500 miles of each other. Usually, earth and moon keep a safe 250,000 miles apart.

The event was heralded last night by a flaming meteor which flashed along the Atlantic seaboard from Delaware to Rhode Island and caused a flood of phone calls to newspaper offices.

FUNERAL PLANS FOR KATHY FISCUS

Kathy will be held tomorrow in the Little Stone church in Alhambra.

At a news conference late yesterday, Dr. Hanson said that the small girl might have survived her imprisonment in the abandoned well in which she perished if her knees had not jammed up against her chest in the 14-inch pipe.

She died of suffocation, he said, because her knees pressed so hard against her chest that she was unable to breathe. There was enough air in the well to support life.

The surgeon, who attended Mrs. Fiscus, Kathy was born, called the news conference primarily to knock down a report that the child strangled to death when a rope got wrapped around her neck during the early rescue attempts.

He stated that Kathy was not strangled. He also said that she did not drown. The coroner's office agreed with Dr. Hanson.

NEW EVIDENCE IN MILWAUKEE GIRL SLAYING

Carol had been highly nervous and under a physician's care since discovery of Patricia's body March 20 in the Milwaukee river. Babich had admitted shooting the sister of his bride-to-be twice and then throwing her weighted body into the stream, but he claimed the shooting was accidental.

Meanwhile, bolstered by additional evidence which he said clearly indicated premeditation, McCauley said he would press for a first degree murder charge.

The maximum penalty in Wisconsin—which does not have capital punishment—is life imprisonment on conviction.

MINIMUM WAGE WOULD FLATTEN BUSINESS MEN

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(INS)—A U. S. Chamber of Commerce spokesman told Congress today that boosting the minimum wage to 75 cents an hour would bring a "chain reaction" of pay raises which would flatten many small businesses.

Carl J. Jansen, president of the Dravo corporation of Pittsburgh, made the prediction in testimony prepared for presentation before a Senate Labor subcommittee.

He said administration-sponsored legislation to boost the minimum wage from the present 40 cents an hour to 75 cents could result in unemployment rather than in benefits for the workers.

Examinations For Air Cadet Will Be Conducted Again

Examining Officer Will Be In New Castle April 23 To Examine Applicants

Arrangements have been completed to have an aviation cadet examining officer in New Castle on Saturday, April 23, it was announced today by Captain Charles E. Weddle, commanding officer of the New Castle U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruiting main station.

The plans were completed to have the examining officer at the recruiting principal station, room 400 Frew Building, for the purpose of interviewing interested applicants and conducting qualifying examinations. Previous to this time qualified applicants had to go to Pittsburgh for the interview and the qualifying examination.

In order to be eligible for the aviation cadet program, a man must be between the ages of 20 and 26 years, have completed two years or more at an accredited college or university—or be able to pass an equivalent educational examination. High school graduates are eligible to take the examination. Also for the first time since the peacetime aviation cadet program took effect, married men are eligible on an equal basis with single men.

Complete information and application for an appointment with the aviation cadet examining officer may be obtained at the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruiting principal station, room 400 Frew Building, at the recruiting station, room 202 Post Office Building, or by telephoning 4745.

Crowe's Trial To Be Postponed Pending Psychiatric Exam

Defense Told Federal Judge Crowe
Should Be Examined Before
Pleading Case

NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—The pleading of Richard Crowe to charges of embezzling $883,660 in cash and bonds from the National City Bank was postponed on Monday until April 26 pending a psychiatric examination of the official.

Crowe, 41-year-old assistant manager of a downtown branch of the bank, is charged in a four-count indictment with violation of federal laws in connection with the huge theft.

His lawyer, Peter Gulotta, told Federal Judge Alfred B. Cox that Crowe should be examined before he pleads to the indictment. Chief U. S. Attorney Irving H. Saypol said the government had no objection to the defense request.

When the judge said he would postpone the pleading until April 26, Saypol, declared he will draw up an order for Judge Cox's signature committing the banker to Bellevue for mental observation.

If convicted on the charges, Crowe, who fled to Florida and was returned to New York by FBI agents, faces a maximum penalty of 45 years in prison and a $300,000 fine.

All of the $690,000 in bonds were recovered in an attic in Crowe's Eltingville, Staten Island home. All but $60,000 of the $193,660 in cash also has been accounted for.

Appealed By School District Of Unity Township, Westmoreland County

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—(INS)—The School District of Unity township, Westmoreland county lost an appeal to the State Supreme Court on Monday from a lower court ruling which restrained local authorities from taxing coal mined in the township.

The school board levied a 10-cent-a-ton tax on coal mined and removed from the township May 27, 1948, under the "tax-anything" law.

The Jamison Coal and Coke company denied the right to impose the tax levied by the Unity Township School board, because in its corporate capacity, it is liable for and now pays the commonwealth, a capital stock tax levied, and, a corporate income tax of the commonwealth.

The "tax-anything" law gives authority to impose levies on anything not taxed by the commonwealth.

Atlanta Man Tells Of Alabama Rescue

Rescue Attempt Similar To One Which Failed To Save
Kathy Fiscus

ATLANTA, April 12.—(INS)—Atlanta Herbert Mathews told today how he made a rescue 37 years ago similar to the one which failed to save Kathy Fiscus.

Mathews was awarded the Carnegie Hero Medal for his rescue in Dothan, Ala., in March, 1912, of a two-year-old child.

Mathews, now an employee of the Atlanta Constitution, was eleven years old at the time.

The child had fallen through a 14-inch opening in a well.

Lanky young Mathews was the only one able to get down into the 30-foot well.

Ropes were tied to the 11-year-old's feet and he was dropped down the opening.

Rescue workers had to lower the youngsters into the well three times before he was able to reach the child. On the third attempt he came up with little Ben Grant.

Both were muddy but uninjured. The story received nationwide attention at the time and Mathews received the Carnegie medal.

Infant Ben Grant is now a Washington newsman.

Hog Price Support Program Forecast For Government

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(INS)—Agriculture Secretary Brannan told Congress today that the government will be involved soon in a hog price support program of "considerable" cost.

Brannan made his forecast in testimony before the House Agriculture committee in connection with his proposed plan to bring down retail food prices and stabilize farm economy at a fair level.

Rep. Hoeven (R) Iowa, asked Brannan what would happen under his proposed price support program, which uses as a base the past 10 years of relative farm prosperity, in event of a depression.

Brannan replied that the present support system itself "is going to cost a considerable amount of money," adding:

"We're going into a price support program on pork right now before the end of this year. It will cost a considerable amount of money."

Brannan said he expects some public criticism because "consumers will be paying a high price for pork at the same time."

The secretary already has suggested that Congress immediately authorize the Agriculture department to make production payments direct to farmers on hogs and milk.

Under this system—similar to wartime subsidies, farmers would receive in cash from the government the difference between the average market price for these commodities and the current parity rate.

Army Recreational Program Criticized

Congressman Levels Criticism
Leveled At Special Services
And Quartermaster

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(INS)—A congressman has criticized the Army for using funds to buy 30,000 golf balls, 1,900 clubs and 15 sets of fishing tackle at a cost of $33,725.

Criticism of the expenditures was leveled at the Special Services Division and the Quartermaster-er Corps by Rep. Engel (R) Mich., at recent closed Appropriations committee hearings on the national military budget.

Maj. Gen. Russell B. Reynolds, chief of special services, defended both programs at the hearings. He said the fishing kits were sent to Alaska which he termed the army's most difficult recreational location.

Concerning the golf equipment, Reynolds told Engel:

"We have in the United States a number of stations which have enlisted men's golf courses. Fort Bragg has one of which they are particularly proud."

New Hampshire has an Atlantic coastline of 18 miles.

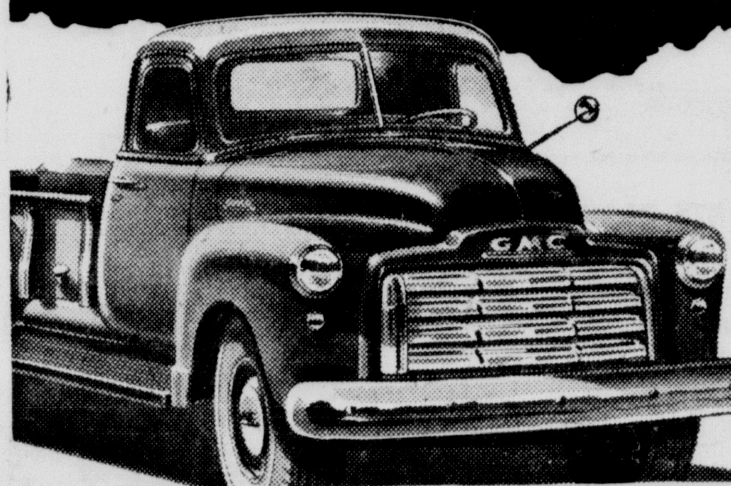

CHRISTEN INFANT, SUNDAY

Waymond Edward Robinson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Robinson, of West State street, was christened on Sunday, April 10, at one in the afternoon, by his great-great-grandfather, Rev. James H. Anderson, in his home, at 526 West State street, where a group of relatives gathered for the occasion.

Godparents are Dr. George W. Garnette and Miss Myrtle E. Robinson.

Following the christening, dainty refreshments were served by the infant's great grandmother, Mrs. C. Atkinson, aided by Mrs. W. Foster and Mrs. I. Booker. The infant received lovely gifts.

IMPLICATIONS IN SOVIET SHIFTS

Recent shifts of key men within the Soviet government have stirred up an apparently endless discussion as to whether this may be the prelude to some dramatic new tangent in Kremlin policy. The iron curtain is so opaque that no one can answer that with certitude at this distance. However, the experts, after mulling over all the available facts and guesses, have generally come to the conclusion that the changes stem from perfectly logical reasons, which have a relatively small influence on the relations of Russia with the West.

The most important change was the supplementing of Molotov with Vishinsky as Foreign Minister. The easy conclusion was that Molotov was in disgrace, and would disappear from public life, as Litvinov did years ago. But Molotov remains a member of the Politburo, which is infinitely more important than any cabinet post. So it can logically be argued that Stalin decided he could be of more value if kept at home. It wouldn't surprise the experts if he was made Premier before long.

The key to the whole business may be found in conditions within the Soviet Union and her satellite states. Things aren't going as well as the Communist want. The difficulties with Tito have provided the most publicized example of this. But what is happening in Yugoslavia is also happening, though in a different way and on a smaller scale, in Hungary, Bulgaria and elsewhere. The Soviet-dominated governments are experiencing special trouble in bringing the peasants into line.

Furthermore, it looks as if the Kremlin is far from satisfied with its own people's ideological fervor. U. S. News put it this way: "The old idea was that the elite of the Communist Party, which has only 6,000,000 members in a country of about 210,000,000 people, would have faith in Communist ideology and execute the orders. Now the Politburo has ordered a tremendous campaign of missionary work that is designed to sell the idea of complete faith in the eventual triumph of Communism to the whole of the Russia people. That campaign is not the kind of thing that can be put across overnight."

What effect may all this have on the great issue of peace or war? It is clear, if these opinions are correct, that Russia is planning on a period of peace. At present, the lines in Europe seem to be pretty well established. Russia has expanded about as far as she can go. There is small chance of the West making any headway in breaking the orbit of countries which surround Russia and whose governments she dominates. So, to Stalin and other top men, this may appear to be the proper time for correcting grave internal weaknesses.

TRUMAN AND NOURSE

Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, was not speaking for President Truman when he indicated in a recent speech that the cost of implementing the North Atlantic Security Pact should be met out of the regular military budget. The President made that plain at his subsequent press conference. He still intends, he said, to ask Congress for extra funds to provide arms for Europe.

As for the Nourse speech, which had been cleared with the President before it was made, Mr. Truman said that it had been distorted by commentators. Quotations from it had been taken out of context, he explained. And he added that Dr. Nourse had been speaking as an economist, which he had a perfect right to do.

Dr. Nourse declared that the new strategic concept implicit in the pact called for a new appraisal of military plans, that the implementation of the treaty could not be a "simple addition" to existing plans, and that the whole "operational and financial" program should be reworked.

But these are broad generalities, after all. They are, it might be noted, rather encouraging generalities. It does seem that the pact will warrant a shift in present plans and that if it lessens the danger of war it should reduce the cost of rearmament.

It is unfortunate that the President failed to foresee the inferences that would be drawn from Dr. Nourse's speech. Or fortunate. It all depends on the viewpoint.

REPORT ON THE "VOICE"

If it could be avoided, the American people would not support any kind of propaganda program—not even one based on the principle that the best propaganda is the truth. It would be much better, as most citizens see it, to leave that task in private hands.

But it has been decided that it is necessary for the government to tell our story. Private agencies cannot do it effectively because it costs money they do not have. So Congress appropriated funds last year to finance the Voice of America and other information activities.

Now the question of continuing the program must be considered. It is already before Congress in the form of a report by a five-member advisory commission set up by President Truman last year to study its operation.

The commission finds that the program has been effective but that the $36,000,000 recommended by the Budget Bureau for the coming year would be a "bare minimum" and out of line with the billions proposed for military and economic aid abroad.

It is for Congress to judge whether more money should be allotted for this purpose.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

Great Britain's Conservative party, snowed under by Laborite votes and policies since 1945, took a new lease on life today and predictions are being made of a real revival in general elections next year.

The unrestrained joy in Tory circles stems from last week's balloting for the London County Council, whose legislative powers and functions are second only to Parliament.

Tremendous Labor Setback
It marked a tremendous labor setback and an unquestioned Conservative triumph. In the council itself the result was an absolute dead heat, with Tories and Socialists winning 64 seats each, leaving a single Liberal councilman holding the balance of power with the deciding vote.

The Laborites are attempting—by what the Conservatives call "backstairs measures"—to regain control with the election of a number of aldermen who will have voting power.

But Prime Minister Clement Attlee and his party advisers can not disguise the fact that the Conservatives made tremendous gains not only in the number of seats but in the popular vote, which is what will count when the country as a whole goes to the polls in 1950.

Labor party leaders claim that the Conservatives confused the electorate by dragging in international issues. Unbiased observers feel the vote reflects public dissatisfaction over the new "misery" budget, which boosts prices and gives no tax relief.

Will Have Opportunity
If the Conservatives are able to forestall or defeat Labor's plan to regain control of the LCC, Churchill and his followers will have a magnificent opportunity.

The sole Liberal on the council, Sir Percy Harris, a veteran of many administrations and a shrewd appraiser of his own powerful position, can be expected to side with the Conservatives.

In any case, the election means elimination of the Labor party steamroller in this assembly at least. As political observers say, members of both factions will be able to vote as their consciences dictate, not at the bidding of a party whip as has been the case so long in the House of Commons. It is entirely likely that the LCC victory, which undoubtedly came as a pleasant and unexpected surprise to many Tories, will be a harbinger of a more general swing in the country.

The World and the Mud Puddles

ANCIENT HISTORY

Westbrook Pegler, in his column "Fair Enough" announces that he would be in favor of repealing the much discussed Taft-Hartley Law, but wouldn't outlaw unions, because that would be to forbid people the right to associate. But he would "just let the rug from under the whole dirty mess and put unionism back where it was before Roosevelt hit upon the idea of cultivating the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. as a source of political revenue and violent coercive power. I would repeal the Taft-Hartley Law absolutely and pass no law to take its place."

Well, he is presuming that if the Taft-Hartley Act were repealed, we would also have to repeal the Wagner Act in order to get the unions back as they were twenty years ago. That is not such a bad idea. We were getting along pretty well before John L. Lewis debauched F. D. R. with his four hundred thousand dollar gift.

Before F. D. R. Election
Before F. D. R. was elected president of this nation we were having a very pleasant time with unions. The steel companies' employment was very satisfactory. There were not so many men unemployed but the unhappy event at Homestead had been practically forgotten and men were employed at very satisfactory wages. And this was true not only of the steel companies, but of other industries. However, the years immediately following the stock market crash were hard on labor. There were a great many men unemployed, but at the time F. D. R. took his place as president of the United States in 1933, the tide had turned. He enlisted Senator Wagner to aid and assist John L. Lewis in organizing the steel workers and in fact, all the workers possible in his C. I. O. unions. And we had at once a lot of trouble. Wagner took care of the legislation and Lewis took care of the organization and they both did a pretty thorough job, and we had all the paraphernalia of militant unionism. The pickets were organized and in their train came mob violence by goons under orders from union leaders. And where the organizers had trouble in getting the workmen to join their prise to many Tory leaders, will result in formation of a new Conservative party policy that will loom large in the general elections.

Has Done Little
Like any other badly defeated political organization, the Conservative party during the last few years has done little but to criticize the Laborites on almost every score but principally with regard to nationalization of industry.

This criticism has gone so far as to lose most of its constructive value. Many Conservatives have come to appreciate the advantages of certain nationalization and oppose such extremes as accusing Attlee of attempting to "communize" Great Britain.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Peace, it's wonderful!
That "Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace," held in New York a couple of weeks ago, is other and almost forgotten, but the taste still lingers.

I doubt that they will ever hold another one, but if they do it should take place somewhere on the Bowery and not in the Waldorf-Astoria.

They shouldn't call it a peace conference but a peace brawl. And if the rag-tag I saw at that awful affair was representative of our present-day "Culture" and "Intellectuals," then I hereby and now register for the International Society of Bums.

I wish you could have been with me when I approached the country's most famous hotel during that conference.

The first thing that greeted me—and on Park Avenue at that—was a police patrol. I think I saw a couple of machineguns sticking out of it, but I am not quite sure. Then there was a truck marked "New York Police, Riot Squad." There were more than two hundred policemen, all ready for action in case Peace became too belligerent.

There were pickets all around the place. But the pickets and the police were about the only decent looking people connected with the conference.

You should have seen the delegates! The Russians for instance. Here these representatives of everything that, in their opinion, is fine and noble and prosperous and worth-while were dressed for such an important occasion the way you wouldn't dress to clean the ashes out of your boiler. But they prattled of prosperity.

Shabby-looking individuals, hungry-looking individuals, who created the impression in me that they expected to be arrested any moment. But they prattled of freedom.

There wasn't a happy face among them. They insulted our country even while smearing more butter on a single roll, during the banquet, than they get in their own countries in two years. But they prattled of Utopia.

They decry our economic system and the complete failure of Democracy while they were drooling for another helping of turkey, or whatever they had, and while their ribs were sticking out of their bodies from undernourishment. But they prattled of happiness under Communism.

During my years as a newspaperman I have heard thousands of speeches, many of them stupid and hollow.

But in all my born days I have never heard such poisonous rot, such unadulterated nonsense as these representatives of Soviet culture and intelligence dished out to their hearers.

And who were the thousands of men and women in the audience who booed America and hailed Russia?

Many of them were refugees or descendants of refugees who fled from that very Utopia of cruelty, hunger and want to these green pastures of ours that gave them shelter and peace, happiness and freedom.

On my way home I saw the Statue of Liberty out in the Harbor.

It seemed to me that she was hanging her head in shame.

Every parent has a problem . . . be it one child or more than one in the family. The first few years the problems seem large but each phase of a child's life is important . . . boys are different than girls . . . but right now we would like to give a thought for boys.

By the time he is ten or twelve every healthy boy wants a workshop, gymnasium, and an office . . . the wise parent goes as far as possible in gratifying these normal desires, but it isn't always practical to give up the entire house to the children. With space limited, the basement usually must substitute for workshop and gym, besides serving other members of the family as a laundry, heating establishment, and storage room.

If you can spare one room, fit it out as an office. Let your boy arrange it to suit himself, but give him a desk or at least a table with one drawer for his private papers . . . let him be responsible for sweeping, dusting, and washing the windows in that room. Let him understand that there is a limit to the noise he may make and the trash he may accumulate, but otherwise give him a free hand.

You may be bothered by all the neighborhood lads who are less fortunate, but you won't often have to search far to find your son.

Perhaps you have some ideas on the above subject . . . there is no law in your sitting down and putting your thoughts on paper and sending them in . . . we and many others in this community firmly believe that first comes the family . . . for a properly trained family group will insure good citizens . . . and good citizens make a community worth living in . . . working in and being proud of. Change Of Tune

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Suggests Atlantic Economic Union

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The birthing of the Atlantic Pact was accomplished in an atmosphere of surgical precision and of dispatch. Now little more than a week old, the infant has a pale and dubious look.

It will live. But how will it live? That question is particularly pertinent in the present atmosphere of Washington, which is nagging, haggling, mean, suspicious. Practically everyone seem to be concerned with how much butter can be traded for how many guns.

That is the tone in the Senate, where the snarling and snapping remind the spectator of nothing so much as the zoo at feeding time. Too often, from the downtown end of the capital, the pact has been analyzed in lawyer-like terms of what provision X and provision Y mean or, more often, do not mean.

Remarkable Letter
A remarkable letter has come to me from L. B. Vernon, president of a company in Pittsburgh. He talks about the nagging, haggling approach and, incidentally, he blames columnists and commentators for contributing to public despair and confusion. I'm afraid that at times we must plead guilty to that charge.

But the important point Vernon makes is that the American people want something to cheer about, something that will stir their hope and touch the deep strain of idealism in the American character. To present it in terms of guns and/or butter is not enough.

If appealed to, Americans will make sacrifices. The expenditure for European aid today are a heavy burden. But most Americans want to look forward to a prospect of hopeful change.

There is such a prospect, this Pittsburgh manufacturer says, and he points to Justice Owen Roberts and the Atlantic Union committee. The Roberts committee advocates organic political federation

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan
(By International News Service)

Congress is expected to approve $1 billion for Europe, 65 million for the UN, 43 million for the Berlin airlift, 5 million to fix up the White House . . . Brother can you spare a dime?

After all it's just money.
Weathermen are meeting in Washington next week and we may be able to tell which way the wind is blowing after that.

The weather bureau does about as well with its forecasts as any other government bureau.

The labor department has forecast a summer of high employment or an increase in unemployment if it isn't . . . That corresponds to the weatherman's "sunny all day if it doesn't rain."

And the State Department predicts peace with the Atlantic Pact if it doesn't get us into trouble.

of the nations comprising the Atlantic Pact would be merely a useful springboard.

Too Startling!
"Is this too startling, too daring, too unpalatable to warrant comment?" Vernon writes. "Why not let the customers decide that? Do you imagine the public believes the irreconcilables it faces are ever going to be reconciled without something daring? I can only speak for my own personal contact with Americans—largely business people—but I don't believe that Americans are any longer so wedded to nationalism as to prefer it to their economic well-being, to say nothing of their freedom."

"The idea of integrating the economies of America and the free nations of Western Europe with a single currency in a common free-trade area strikes as nothing but a common-sense adjustment to the present-day demands of industrial and economic stability here and in Europe."

"Where is there any sound business in America's trying to bolster up six or eight shattered, rival European monetary systems and perpetuating the costly, unnecessary nuisance of Europe's tragic dollar shortages?"

"Under a common currency system, all this would be wiped out and Europeans would be enriched, in effect, without the cost of a nickel to the U.S.A.—in fact, without anything but a great economic benefit to the U.S.A."

Would Shudder
If you put this up to the most well-intentioned men in the Senate, I'm a little afraid they would shudder at such naked idealism. As for the Jenners and the Capeharts, they would react as usual, which is to say they would explode with rage and vituperation.

There are signs like the first crocus in the spring, that changes looking toward a western federation are coming. France, Britain and the U.S. have managed to agree on what seems to be a rational settlement for Germany. Italy and France are entering a customs union that will remove many of the antiquated nationalistic barriers that wall off each separate country.

But the push, the lift, from this side of the Atlantic is lacking. This country is giving money for economic aid to Europe. Congress will shortly be asked to appropriate money for arms. Even if all this is done, it may not be enough. Guns and butter are not a substitute for the living, breathing word that can bring hope for the future.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

ABOUT DOG TRAINING
At show obedience tests I see Who trains a dog must patient be; With simple words speak each command

Until it learns to understand, And when the order it obeys, Reward with bits of food and praise.

To teach a dog what dogs should know
To train a dog to heel or sit
Is plainly patient work and slow.
A man must give his time to it;
Be stern at times, but always fair,
And give it tender love and care.

If dogs with patience can be taught
To live and do the way they ought,
Is not the duty just as plain
For all who have a child to train?
Should they the time required Refuse,
Lest some small selfish joy they lose?

The dog that's left the streets to stray
No rule of conduct will obey.
The child that is not trained at home
But turned upon the streets to roam,
Denied parental love and care,
May stumble in the pitfalls there.

After listening to weather forecasters for years, we have one conclusion. There are three types of weather conditions: The kind we want, the kind the forecasters say we will have, and the kind we get."

Desire To Be Columnists!

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

I have yet to receive a batch of mail that didn't contain four or five letters from people who wanted to be newspaper columnists.

The same is undoubtedly true of the mail of Pegler, Driscoll, Dix, Durling and all of the others who wring a living from the keys of a typewriter.

The desire to write a column must be a universal emotion. It must go right along with wanting to pat a friendly dog, hug a pretty girl, drive a red car, and go back to sleep after the alarm clock has gone off.

Don't Know How To Answer
Frankly, I never know how to answer the would-be columnists. This is probably because the would-be columnists come from such scattered fields. A spinster in Butte, Montana, wants to be one. So does a field hand from Old Louisiana. So does the wit and humor editor of a high school paper, Harrisburg, Pa. So does a corset and uplift salesman from San Diego.

They always ask the same two questions. The first question is "How did you get a start?" and the second is "How may I get a start?"

I can't answer either question.
To tell them how I got a start would be to write an autobiography, and a pretty dull one, at that. I would have to tell them about my youth in Georgia, my youth in South Carolina, my youth in Florida, my youth in Alabama, my youth in Tennessee, because, you see, I was a preacher's son, and our family moved so often it is a wonder we didn't set up our own trucking and moving corporation.

General Fund Of Knowledge
I would have to tell them how I was expelled from grammar school, kicked out of high school, and given a dishonorable discharge from college too. I would have to tell them how I built up a general fund of knowledge by selling leather bow ties on the corners of New York's bustling streets, cutting sandwiches in a popular sandwichery in the same city, and living on fifteen cents a day, with ten cents out for subway fare. It's amazing, though, what you can eat for five cents if you're on friendly terms with the cook.

Now I couldn't advise anyone to follow that routine to become a columnist. So what must I tell these people who want to write a column?

If you write and tell them to hang on to the jobs they have, that they're a lot better off, they get mad. They write right back and call you a stuck-up, no-good, fourteen-carat rat. Worse, they send you their home-made columns to read.

There is a man in Lorain, Ohio, who has been sending me his columns for two years. He feels that he is ready for a place on the Manchester Guardian's editorial page—as a starter.

Tells About Lorain
If your heart and soul are wrapped up in Lorain, Ohio, then these columns are right down your alley, because they tell of Lorain's fire department, its public drinking fountains, its parks, buildings, parking lots, and the unbelievably lovely rose garden of a certain Mrs. J. Fritz Hightower. But if your interests encompass more than the city limits of Lorain, you wouldn't like more than a month of them.

The fact that I haven't published one of these Lorain columns, or placed the writer as columnist in some metropolitan paper, causes him to write all the papers in Ohio each week, urging those that run my column to quit doing so, and pleading with those that don't to swear they never will.

There is the man in New Orleans. The last time I was in that city (and I would like to be there and become a monument, I like it so) this man sent me around 200 pounds of columns he had stitched up at home.

Why Be A Columnist?
"You are at perfect liberty to use any or all of them as you wish," his note said, "only I insist on being given credit for any that you use."

Why anyone would want to be a columnist baffles me. The hours are long, the pay isn't too good, and no matter what a columnist writes he makes someone sore. I have often considered abandoning writing a column and going to work in a coal mine that was CIO operated. Now, there's a soft touch, boys.

Does Mr. Lewis make them work four hours a week or five? And if you happened to get a job in a soft coal mine—well, that would be paradise, even with the bread, wine, and other trimmings that Omnipotent Tentmaker wrote about. Was he a member of the Tentmakers Union?

BIBLE THOUGHT

And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

—Matthew 6:6.

JOBS UPON A TIME

JENNY LIND is noted as one of the greatest singers of all times. It is less generally known that she was also a marvelous actress. She was born in Stockholm (Oslo), Sweden, in 1820, daughter of a lace manufacturer. She was first educated for the stage and appeared in plays, not opera, until 1836. She made her own great success in opera in her own country, then went to Paris, London and Berlin. Came to the United States in 1850 and stayed two years, mostly under the management of P. T. Barnum. She also was married here. Dr. Lyman Abbot, noted clergyman said of her, "It was impossible to doubt the Resurrection while she was singing 'I Know That My Redeemer Liveth.' She died in England in 1877."

Leaders of Faith
This seems to justify indoctrination by the leaders of each faith and sect, and by the parents who are members thereof. Now different church organizations differ in amount and ways of indoctrination. The older and more highly organized the religious group is, as a rule, the more formal and intense the indoctrination, especially of the children. The Jewish church, particularly the orthodox branch, and the Catholic church have their children learn by heart answers to certain basic questions pertinent to their faith before these children become full-fledged members. So do certain Protestant churches. These exercises are (Continued on Page Seven)

$9,633,646 Measure Approved By Duff

HARRISBURG, April 12—(INS)—A carry-all deficiency appropriation totaling $9,633,646 to assure uninterrupted operation of various state government agencies was approved Monday by Gov. James H. Duff.

The bill, sponsored by House Appropriations Committee Chairman Norman Wood (R) Lancaster, allocated $3,000 to the state treasurer; $85,000 to the Department of Forests and Waters; $25,000 to the Department of Internal Affairs;

$65,000 to the Department of Labor and Industry; $362,000 to the Department of Property and Supplies; $1,008,246 to the Department of Welfare; $14,000 to the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission and $6,000 to the Judicial Department.

Funds Asked By President Are Cut Down

House Appropriations Committee Reduces Truman's Requests Nine Percent

WASHINGTON, April 12—(INS)—The house appropriations committee on Monday cut nine percent from President Truman's money request for 29 independent agencies, including a half-billion dollar slash in veterans aid.

The group voted $7,575,888,231 for the 1950 fiscal year beginning July 1. This is $734,680,599 less than requested by Mr. Truman.

Monday's action brings to approximately one billion 830 million dollars the committee has knocked out of President Truman's 42 billion dollar budget.

The committee allotted to the Veterans Administration $5,145,431,490, the largest sum in the independent offices bill. But the administration's request for GI bill of rights funds was cut a half billion dollars.

Reject Rescinding Move
The committee rejected the president's request that 237 million dollars in contract authorization be rescinded and that the veterans hospital construction program be curtailed. The committee blamed the proposed curtailment on the budget bureau and said it was "perhaps not thoroughly considered."

Mr. Truman's announcement of the curtailment in construction brought a storm of protests upon the heads of congressmen. If carried into effect, it would have required the reduction of 16,000 beds, completely eliminating 24 proposed hospitals, and altering the size of 15 other hospitals.

The committee's bill, the last of the annual fund measures for executive departments and agencies, also included $1,090,120,397 for the atomic energy commission, a cut of $76,879,603 in budget requests.

The committee also handed out $2,000 annual pay raises to a group of government officials and created the new $15,000 four-year post of chairman of the national advisory committee on aeronautics.

Increases Pay
It increased from $10,000 to $12,000 the pay of the following officials: budget director, civil service commissioners, federal communications commissioners, federal power commissioners, federal trade commissioners, public buildings administrator, public roads administrator and securities and exchange commission members.

Ironically enough, among the agencies whose funds were cut by the budget bureau, which almost always slashes the appropriations initially requested by other government agencies. The committee gave the bureau $2,983,050, which is $331,450 less than it asked.

The measure included $395,991,000 for the public roads administration for federally-aided roads construction, a cut of 27½ million dollars in the budget estimates. The bill also contained $150,000 for the president's compensation (including a $50,000 expense account), $1,375,140 for White House salaries and expenses, $260,400 for the upkeep of the executive mansion and $1,000,000 for the president's emergency fund. None of the White House requests were altered by the committee.

Other Funds Approved
Other funds approved by the committee included:

Displaced persons commission, $4,210,000 (a reduction of $990,000 in the budget estimates); Philippine war damage commission, $184,800,000; selective service system, $9,000,000 (a budget cut of $7,700,000); Tennessee Valley Authority, $49,359,150 (a budget reduction of $7,040,850) for construction (plus another $79,766,000 available to TVA for its own funds).

U. S. maritime commission, $62,380,424 (a budget cut of $9,760,966), plus a $70,125,000 contract authorization; Panama canal construction fund, $5,304,870, and canal zone retirement and disability fund $899,100 (civil service commission), and the national advisory committee for aeronautics, $48,710,000.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

known as catechisms. Some other Protestant groups have classes for children in preparation for membership, in which the beliefs of the church these children plan to join are explained.

I gather the impression that this practice is growing and spreading among all sects. Leaders in these various sects have concluded that indoctrination by parents and the Sunday school is not enough, and their reasoning seems to me to be on good psychological grounds.

Require Attendance

Now if your child is registered, with your approval, in a church indoctrination class of any sort, I think you will agree with me that you owe it to him to encourage, even in some instances to require, him to attend promptly and regularly and to pursue the course earnestly. Your attitude toward his participation in this course reflects the value you place on it.

Though a Protestant myself, I was once invited to attend a parents' section at a Eucharistic Congress (Catholic), where I heard the problem discussed of getting children after becoming members to go to confession faithfully. While this is a different practice from that of young Protestant members it is quite an essential practice in the Catholic church. It requires of the youth a strong sense of responsibility and a lot of parental help and skill for its development.

What I'm driving at is that, regardless of the religious faith or practice, a very heavy responsibility devolves upon parents to help the child to live up faithfully to the obligations he has espoused.

particular union, brute force assisted.

You will remember what the Wagner Act stated in its preamble was the purpose of its passage—it was intended to promote and facilitate interstate commerce and put an end to the disturbances due to labor disputes.

The act was designed for no such purpose. It was designed for the purposes stated by Pegler.

Unions in Saddle

I suppose we will never get back to conditions previous to F. D. R.'s administration if the present Congress restores the Wagner act to the statute books of the nation. And if it ever comes to real force and violence, the affair of Home-Steel will be child play as compared to what we can expect to suffer.

The unions are in the saddle now. The Republican party went to sleep in the last election. They could not have hired the newspapers to do a more thorough job than they did. It looked too easy for Mr. Dewey. His failure and the failure of the Republican National committee have much for which to answer.

The great danger to the United States of America is not from Soviet Russia, but from union leaders like John L. Lewis and men of his ilk.

assumed an almost ridiculous aspect. This applied definitely to the hue and cry about taking American money and the argument that Britain is becoming America's 49th state.

The continuing need for American dollars was made a major issue when Foreign Under-Secretary Christopher Mayhew spoke too loosely before the United Nations recently and gave the impression that Britain's recovery is complete.

Outline New Policy

Conservatives joined with Laborites in rushing to make clear that while industry is well on the upgrade, economies are still badly disjointed and will remain so for a long time to come.

In all probabilities, the best minds of the Conservative party probably are working already on the new policy program to be outlined before the elections.

A determination to cut loose from American assistance probably will be a major factor stressed. Despite all jibes to the contrary, the average Briton, be he Conservative or Laborite, has a feeling of injured pride about being on the receiving end of American generosity.

So far as the broad issues are concerned, there seems to be a definite trend away from socialism in its extreme forms in any case. The Attlee government's margin of votes in the House of Commons has been whittled down steadily even though the Conservatives have won no new seats. Many Labor MP's who are not strictly party men have been voting against their own regime or abstaining.

PSYCHIATRISTS AND MOTHERS
Mothers don't want to be too much bothered with psychiatry. It is too hard to spell.

Anyhow these psychiatrists seem to know something about the mind. They figure out how people ought to behave and how they do behave and why and when and all that sort of stuff.

They have made a great discovery. Just recently some of the wisest ones have found out that Mothers know something.

That seems kind of funny but such an announcement has been made. Mothers have been cuddling babies and nursing them and talking baby talk and spoiling them since before the big flood.

Awfully back, some doctors seemed to think that baby might as well be kept in a sterile box and fed through a rubber tube.

Nowadays mothers are given the high sign to go ahead and cuddle.

Adopt Measure Providing Meters

Council Proceeding With Plan To Purchase 264
More Parking Meters

OTHER NEWS OF COUNCIL ACTION

When city council met in formal meeting in city hall Monday, a number of ordinances were adopted, among them one presented by property director Alexander, authorizing the city to purchase 264, more or less, parking meters, from the Duncan Meter corporation of Illinois, at a cost of $72.50 each, payable over a 25 months period. When installed the city will have approximately 464 meters in operation.

Among the thoroughfares along which the meters will be installed is Long avenue, between Grimes and Moravia streets.

Other ordinances passed provide for:

Storm Sewers

Carlisle street ancient water course from Carlisle street across lands of Gillfillan, Hampel, Thompson, Shenan, McBride, Sacco and Patterson to the end of a culvert in Euclid avenue; Madison avenue between Liberty and Cedar streets, and Summer avenue between Norwood and Audley avenues.

Retreatment of Streets

Fairfield avenue between Highland avenue to 145 feet west of Carlisle, and Pine street between East Main and Oak streets.

New Paving

Reynolds street extension, between Scioto and Moravia streets.

New Ordinances

New bills were introduced as follows:

Director Gibson: Changing and fixing a grade in Addis street, between Wilson and Jackson avenues and ordaining Gibson street, between Arlington avenue, 1236 feet south, and fixing the lines thereof.

Roosevelt Opposed By Tammany Hall

NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—It is Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., against Tammany Hall for the congressional seat of the late Sol Bloom.

The lines were drawn last night when Tammany nominated municipal court judge Benjamin Sholleck for the traditionally Democratic district of Manhattan's west side.

Young Roosevelt was kept in the race with the backing of Robert B. Blaikie, a Tammany leader for the district who bolted from the parent organization.

Six of the 12 district leaders, however, decided to back Shalleck after a stormy session behind locked wigwam doors.

Turnpike Bid

HARRISBURG, April 12.—(INS)—An unofficial low bid of $2,509,828 was scrutinized today by the Pennsylvania turnpike commission for pushing the four-lane highway 4.66 miles eastward to King of Prussia.

The tentative award was made to J. C. Langenfelder of Baltimore, Md., for the work in Lower Swatara and Londonderry townships in Dauphin county.

When completed, the eastward extension will run from Middlesex, near Carlisle, to King of Prussia in the metropolitan Philadelphia area.

The original section of the toll road was opened in October, 1940, between Middlesex and Irwin, in the metropolitan Pittsburgh area.

Years

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—(INS)—The guards at Independence Hall were startled recently because of a 12-year-old Boy Scout calmly unlocked the historic shrine.

Scout Hugh Williams from Westfield, N. J., was touring Philadelphia's historic spots with some other Scouts when they reached the shrine, wherein is kept the famous Liberty Bell.

The group was dismayed to find Independence Hall locked but young Williams solved the problem by opening the door with a key that belonged to his family for years.

When the caretakers saw this they were amazed and tried coaxing the youngster into giving them the key. However, Williams kept it and proceeded into the hall.

Reports Denied Soviet Intends To Lift Blockade

BERLIN, April 12.—(INS)—Western government officials today flatly denied reports of indications that the Soviet Union is preparing to lift the 10-month-old Berlin blockade.

The report published by the London Daily Mail, said that allied officials are studying intelligence documents suggesting the blockade may be lifted soon.

The airlift to the former German capital, which was organized when the Russians stopped all train and road shipments, set a new record yesterday by flying in 8,246 tons in 902 flights—was set on Feb. 26.

Reveal U.S. Discovers New Atomic Weapons

By JOHN BOOTH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Extraordinary secret testimony revealed today that the United States has discovered new atomic weapons in the past year.

The disclosure came from David E. Lillenthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, who also warned that America's industrial "know-how" on making the A-bomb "will surely not be an indefinite one."

Lillenthal advocated that the United States continue to stockpile the atomic bomb to deter any aggressor nation from starting a war.

The atomic chief reported to a House appropriations subcommittee under conditions of utmost secrecy. Portions of his testimony were made public today.

At times during the appearance, members of Lillenthal's own staff were asked to leave the hearing. AEC officials also frequently "went off the record" in answering questions.

Improving Weapons

Lillenthal informed the subcommittee that the major activity of the commission in 1948 "continued to be the production and improvement of atomic weapons." He commented:

"Important changes were made in all these fields in 1948. New designs of weapons have been tested and found to be successful and further developments are now in progress."

The former TVA head reported that in 1948, 20 atomic energy plants were under construction or major alterations.

In response to questioning, Lillenthal declared that because there is no deterioration of stored plutonium and uranium, the energy in a stockpile of bombs could be used for either war or for peaceful purposes anytime in the next thousand years.

He remarked:

"A handful of this stuff (fissionable materials) can be beaten into ploughshares at any time."

Peace Prospects Not Dim

He added, however, that in the light of present-day events, there is no evidence to indicate that there will be a complete outlawing of atomic energy weapons. He said the Baruch plan for international control would be effective in preventing the surprise use of atomic weapons in warfare however.

Lillenthal said:

"My own feeling is that the prospects in the future for peace are by no means dim and that that peace will include some effective control, some foolproof control of atomic weapons as a surprise weapon. However, today, a fellow would be foolhardy to think that this is an early prospect."

In his testimony, Lillenthal indicated strongly that the use of atomic energy on naval vessels will probably be the first non-weapon use to be developed.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Brides of 1949 are going Ku Klux Klan-ish!

Instead of taking their vows in veils, they can now wear cloaks with hoods.

A New York millinery designer will show this first recent innovation in wedding wear sometime next week, and he believes it will start a trend toward more elaborate headgear and simpler bridal gowns.

The cloak is a floor-length cape of white tulle, sprinkled with hyacinths or white rose buds. Its fastenings around the neck with a white satin tie—and the hair is virtuously draped on a monk-like hood.

"With the wedding cloak," its designer pointed out, "a bride can wear a low-cut, sophisticated neckline and still keep the best wedding traditions for covered-up dress."

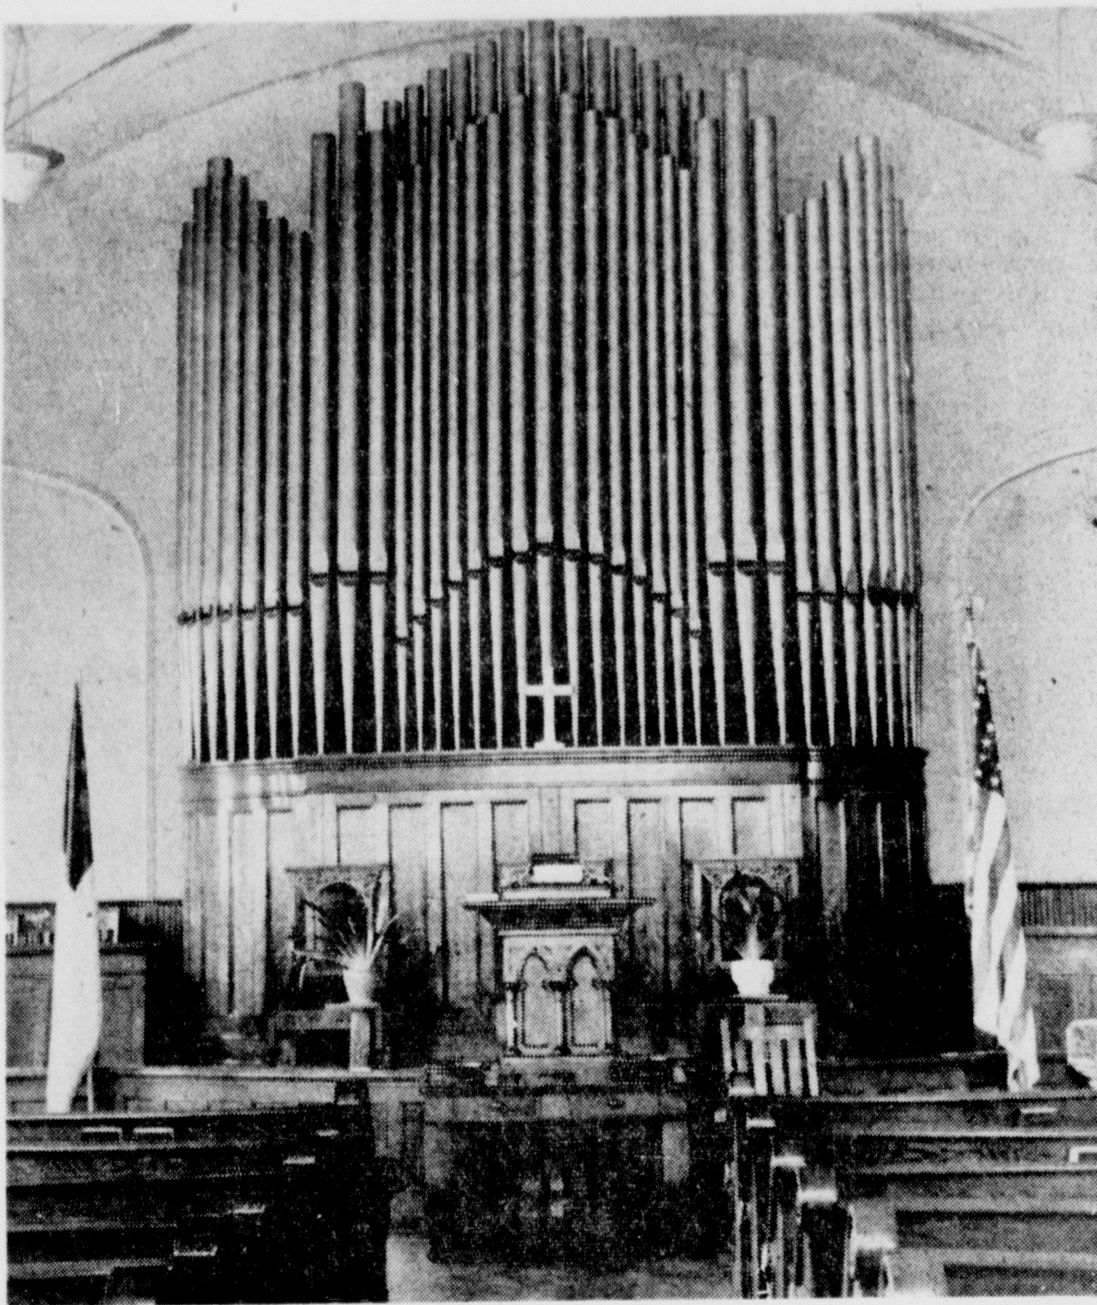

"But at the dinner, dance or reception following—she can unveil her shoulders and be comfortable."

Neshannock Presbyterian Church Has Fine Pipe Organ

In connection with plans for the sesqui-centennial of the Neshannock Presbyterian congregation of New Wilmington, in the near future, the fine pipe organ, acquired in recent years, is one of the developments that is most gratifying to present members of the congregation.

Neshannock congregation has always had an abundance of musical talent and nearly always had vocalists of superior training, and the instrumental music was only an accompaniment to the vocal.

However the best was desired.

Finally a movement was started by McCormick Moore, in consultation with Dr. Sherman A. Kirkbride, to secure a pipe organ.

This vision was brought to reality largely through the generosity of the Rev. Samuel Elliott, D. D., an honored son of Neshannock.

The purchase of the organ was made in the pastorate of the Rev. George H. Buckner, and the instrument was installed in May, 1925.

Burglars Steal $4, Cigarettes

Burglars who robbed Grim's Super-Market, East Washington street, at 3:05 a. m. today sped away in an auto, police were told by George H. Grim, proprietor. They smashed the cash register, stole $4, and $50 worth of cigarettes.

Mr. Grim was awakened by the noise made by the burglars. He turned on the electric lights then called police. However, the lights alarmed the burglars and they escaped before police had time to reach the market.

Wampum Rotary Has Speaker On Health

Tuberculosis Society Executive Gives Report On Health Maintenance In Schools

Mrs. Jane M. Cochran, executive secretary, Lawrence County Tuberculosis society, was the main speaker at the Wampum Rotary meeting Monday night in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

The school health program and the tuberculosis society's role in that program were the topic for the evening. Mrs. Cochran showed a film, "Goodbye, Mr. Germ." Her talk followed the movie was a summary of the work done by local society in the county schools during the past two months.

She explained the plan to give a patch test to all students in all numbered grades in all the county schools. This would mean that each student would be checked at least every other year. More than 3,600 students and teachers have been tested in the last two months. Those who reacted positively, 238, were given an X-Ray.

Cites Example

The speaker cited an interesting example of the benefits of this program. A very serious case of tuberculosis was discovered as a result of the test. The unfortunate student was sent away for a cure and all of her associates, including teachers, were carefully X-Rayed.

Mrs. Cochran told the group that parental resistance to the testing program was greater in the Wampum district than any other of the county. She urged the group to stimulate better cooperation between the parents and the health authorities.

Mrs. Bernice Baier, school nurse, also discussed her role in the program of school health being conducted on a county basis.

A delicious dinner was prepared and served by the church missionary society prior to the speaking program.

Motorist Threatened With Knife, He Says

Joseph Porado, Northview avenue, told police at 7:45 p. m. Monday that a motorist in Apple Way had threatened him with a knife.

Porado said he backed his car against the front end of another auto, in which there were a woman and a child.

The woman began screaming and husband appeared, flashed a knife and "threatened to cut me up," Porado alleged.

Man Badly Hurt In Fall Off Roof

Clarence Jones, of Cunningham Avenue, suffers fracture of vertebra

Clarence Jones, aged 35 years, 720 Cunningham avenue, a driver for the Haggerty Coal Co., was badly injured at 1:40 p. m. Monday when he fell from the roof of the old Taylor homestead, where he was doing some work.

He was taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where X-ray examination showed he had suffered a fracture of the vertebra of the back. It was stated at the hospital, however, that he had a good night, and that his condition was regarded as good.

Clay Believes New Statute May Speed Russia's Cold War

Military Governor In Germany Believes Enforcement Will Speed Up Russia's Plans

BERLIN, April 12.—(INS)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the American military governor in Germany, believes enforcement of the new occupation statute in Germany may prompt the Soviet Union to speed-up its cold war plans.

Clay, in an exclusive statement to International News Service, declared "decisive promulgation of the occupation statute may accelerate" any steps the Soviet Union is planning.

He declared that he has already made his retirement plans, and maintained that he "expects to carry them out independent of when the west German federation is established." The formation of a west German government is now being discussed by a constituent assembly in Bonn.

Gaston Post To Meet This Evening

Perry S. Gaston Post No. 343, American Legion, will have its semi-monthly meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the Legion Home, when a fine program will be presented, commander Merle H. Hilbrand announced today.

This will be presented by the organized reserves, with a film in connection, and promises to be interesting. Lunch will be served at the close of the evening's program.

Former Residents Married 41 Years

Word has been received here that Rev. and Mrs. Archie Gibson of Erie, who formerly were in charge of the City Rescue Mission here, will celebrate their forty-first wedding anniversary on Wednesday, April 13. Court House To Be Closed Friday

Fishermen Are Warned To Get Their Licenses Before Opening Day

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE HILL

Lawrence county fishermen have been given a warning by County Treasurer Don I. Neal that they must procure their fishing licenses before Friday, the opening day of the fishing season, or they will be out of luck as the Treasurer's office will be closed, along with all other county offices, because of Good Friday.

Many licenses have already been taken out by county fishermen, indicating the fact that the trout enthusiasts will be out in large numbers.

Out of state fishermen are going to have a hard time getting a license, however, if they let the matter go until opening day.

GIVES OPINION IN FEDERAL SUIT

In the action of Peter Askounes vs. the National Housing Agency, and various other governmental housing bureaus, Judge John G. Lamoree has handed down an opinion affirming a previous decision and has refused the defendants petition to set aside service and dismiss the complaint. The petition was brought by Owen M. Burns, U. S. attorney for Western Pennsylvania, and James F. Boyer, special attorney for the Department of Justice.

The action involves a piece of property which Askounes bought from the Lawrence Savings and Trust company, on which the National Housing Agency had a seven-year lease.

The contention of the U. S. attorneys is that the United States of America as sovereign, is basically immune from suit and its various institutions are also immune. However, the court has ruled that the housing agencies, which in this instance include the National Housing Agency, Housing and Home Finance Agency, Home Owners Loan Corporation, the Public Housing Administration and Joseph Green and James E. Lafferty, public officials in their capacity as brokers, agents and representatives of the above, have the right to sue and be sued and that the local court have jurisdiction. The defendants are given 20 days in which to file answer.

AGED WOMAN MISSING

PITTSBURGH, April 12.—(INS)—The missing persons bureau today was looking for a 93-year-old woman reported missing from her home since last Thursday.

Relatives reported that the aged woman, Mrs. Emma Eckenrodt, was in good health and traveled a lot. Police were checking the home of another daughter in Cleveland, O., where Mrs. Eckenrodt was found when she disappeared once before.

Passover Starts Here Wednesday

Local Synagogues Prepare Services For Oldest Festival Of Liberty

Passover, or Pesach, begins at sundown Wednesday, April 13, and for Reform Jews concludes at sundown Wednesday, April 20. Orthodox and Conservative Jews add one day, observing eight days, the first and last two days being Holy Convocations. The Hebrew date is the 15th of Nissan.

Passover is the oldest festival of liberty in the annals of civilization. Thirty-five hundred years ago the enslaved Jews revolted against the tyranny of the Egyptian taskmasters, escaped from slavery, blazed a trail across the wilderness, crossed the Jordan and conquered Palestine, the Promised Land.

Since that day the Jews have observed this season with prayer and thanksgiving to God for the ideals of liberty and truth. The Passover meal, or seder, ushers in the holidays on the first night, and the whole history of the Passover is recited to the children. During this season unleavened bread or matzos is eaten, in commemoration of the fact that when the Jews fled Egypt they had no time to leaven their bread.

American democracy is based upon the ideals of freedom and liberty first proclaimed by the Jews' successful revolt against slavery and oppression. Our founding fathers relieved the same atmosphere of tension and fear in their flight to the New World and it is a testament to their endurance and wisdom that we in America enjoy the rights and liberties they won.

Today the Festival of Passover brings a message of hope and encouragement to all people who live in lands of darkness, and gives them the promise of a free world of tomorrow, when "each man may sit in the shadow of his own vine and fig tree and none make him afraid."

Temple Israel services will include vesper services Wednesday, April 13, at 6 p. m., followed by a congregational seder with Dr. Iwan J. Gruen in charge.

On Thursday, Passover morning services will be conducted at 10:30 o'clock.

Fathers And Sons Banquet At Bethel

Fathers and Sons to the number of 110 gathered in the basement of Bethel U. P. church and enjoyed a delicious banquet dinner prepared and served by the ladies of the church, last Thursday night. After dinner a program of music and speaking was enjoyed. Mr. Charles Dice served as toastmaster and is to be commended on the excellent performance of his task. Invocation was offered by Willard George, pastor of the congregation, who later in the program favored the group with a few well-chosen remarks.

Jack McKee led the group in song. John McConnell, speaking for the fathers, gave a toast to the sons and Lyle Gwin responded for the sons. Vocal music by a quartet composed of Edwin Brandt, Glen Strohecker, Lloyd Raney and Harry Witherspoon.

Speaker of the evening was Kyle George of Youngstown. His address was very interesting and inspiring.

Willard George dismissed the group with a word of prayer.

Anniversary Of Roosevelt's Death

HYDE PARK, N. Y., April 12.—(INS)—Simple ceremonies at Franklin D. Roosevelt's Hyde Park graveside today marked the fourth anniversary of his death.

Mrs. Roosevelt and members of FDR's immediate family planned to attend the memorial service.

Wreaths were to be placed on the tomb by representatives of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Foundation, the Roosevelt Home Club and Drew Pearson, in behalf of the French Gratitude Train.

The late president suffered his fatal cerebral hemorrhage at Warm Springs, Ga., on April 12, 1945.

Home Rule For Philadelphia Is Aim Of New Bill

HARRISBURG, April 12.—(INS)—Legislation to give Philadelphia the right to "home rule" reached Gov. James H. Duff's desk today.

Approved finally by the house last night by a 110-87 vote, a measure sponsored by Sen. John W. Lord, Jr., (R) Philadelphia, would permit the city to draft its own charter in preparation for ultimate consolidation of city and county governments.

The governor is expected to sign the bill.

A companion measure, proposing a constitutional amendment to authorize consolidation of Philadelphia's city and county governments was approved at the same time without a dissenting vote. The measure next must be approved by the next separately-elected General Assembly and by the electorate in a referendum vote.

Rotary Club Is Host To Scouts

Members Of Rotary Troop
One Guests At Luncheon Meeting Monday

FOSTER RECALLS EARLY HISTORY

New Castle Rotary Club was host to Rotary Troop One, on the eve of the 40th anniversary of scouting, which will be observed in 1950, in connection with which Boy Scouts of America are engaged in their 40th anniversary crusade.

Over 30 members of the troop were present for the luncheon, and John Panella, chairman of scouting for the club presided and introduced Keith Van Fossen, scoutmaster, who told of some of the work being done by the troop, and of the new lease on life which the troop has taken because of the interest shown by Mr. Panella with a plaque in behalf of the troop.

Foster Reminiscences

Dr. Arthur B. Foster, who was one of the first scoutmasters of Rotary Troop One, recounted the early days of the troop, scouting having been brought to New Castle by New Rotary Club, soon after its organization 27 years ago.

He recounted that Arthur Dean had then been the first scoutmaster, with Frank Mauger, as assistant. Mr. Mauger left to become a missionary in South Africa, and Mr. Dean gave up the work because of other duties, with the result that he took over. Then Jack Hulme became assistant scoutmaster.

He recalled that the troop met in a basement in the Dean Block, and had a camp site at what is now the football training camp at Muddy Creek Falls.

Assistant Scout Executive John Dawson, who recently arrived here to take up these duties was introduced, and spoke of the great work which scouting is doing to provide useful recreation for the boys of America, directing them in the right direction in the paths of democracy.

Schmidt Named Vice President. Scouting is growing, he stated, Cub Scouts having increased from 145 to 202 since the first of January, and regular scouts from 641 to 729.

In conclusion, two of the troop members presented a tableau, depicting scouting as the statue of liberty for scouting.

At the run-off election, to decide the tie for vice president of the club, Alan K. Schmidt was named vice president, to take office along with those elected last week, at the first meeting in July.

Journalism Day Set For May 14 At Westminster

Pi-Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity at Westminster College, will hold their annual Journalism Day, Saturday, May 14. About 75 high schools in the tri-state area will again be invited.

The program will get underway at 11 a. m., with an address of welcome by Dr. Will W. Orr, new college president. Newspapermen who will appear on the program are William Keigel, of the Ellwood City Ledger, and Harold Burns of the New Wilmington Globe.

Four recent Westminster graduates now engaged in journalism work in Pittsburgh, will appear at panel discussions. They are Miss Ruth Stoehr of the public relations department at the H. J. Heinz Co.; Ralph Zahniser, editor of the Pennsylvania Construction Digest; and James Oravetz of Grove, Ketchum and McLeod advertising agency.

The visiting high school students will tour the campus and will be guests of the college at a noon-day luncheon.

Refuse Permit For Carnival

Mayor Says Only One Carnival Will Get Permit To Show Here

MATTER AIRED AT COUNCIL MEETING

Raymond F. Horschler, representing the Harry L. McBride Post, NO. 522, V. F. W. spoke emphatically to council prior to its refusal to permit the McBride post to sponsor a carnival for the raising of revenue needed, he said, by the organization, in city hall, Monday.

Mayor Haven told Mr. Horschler that only one carnival would be permitted here this summer; that for the benefit of city recreation, which would, he said, benefit all the people, and added to that, to grant the McBride post a permit, would open the door to other organizations.

Mr. Horschler informed solons that the post desired to sponsor a carnival in June for the purpose of aiding their treasury, and keeping the organization together. He said the carnival would 'show' in Liberty street, and be a clean carnival.

Only One Carnival
Mayor Haven replied to the effect that he had informed a delegation Friday last that, insofar as he is concerned, only one carnival will be permitted, and this will be permitted to show here only to raise money for city recreation.

He said that former Mayor Mayne had stopped all carnivals from showing here. He added that no one, better than police, realize the trouble carnivals cause. He said the firemen had sponsored a carnival, and the latter did things they should not have done, "and as a result the State police came in under the nose of City police and closed some concessions."

Some Carnivals Not Clean
"So far as I am concerned, I'm saying 'no'." Mayor Haven stated. "If the city grants a permit for recreation, our organization is also recreational. Why discriminate against us? Why are we refused?" Mr. Horschler inquired.

"There is no stopping place if the permit is granted. I have received requests from other organizations, also," the mayor responded.

The mayor stated that "some carnivals are not fit and clean." "Isn't there a difference between some of them?" Horschler asked. "If we grant this, there will be two carnivals a month, and I cannot say 'no' to future requests," the mayor replied. He said that one for the city recreation will benefit all, while the McBride post carnival would benefit only one organization.

"I do not believe the soldiers are receiving a square deal," Horschler stated. "Every foreign organization has 'side-boards,' likewise, the clubs. The American legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars do not have 'side-boards.'"

Both Aid Deshon
Mr. Horschler recalled that, Congress has said "the country belongs to the veterans," then inferred nothing is done, yet Congress has billions of dollars for Europe.

The mayor told Mr. Horschler: "I don't think you are fair. We are good to Deshon hospital."

"So are the Veterans of Foreign Wars," Mr. Horschler responded. The mayor then said that the council is receiving criticism because of cars on streets being raffled. He said he and council had refused to permit organizations from outside the city to do business here.

He advised Mr. Horschler the post can place a car on the street from which the organization could realize revenue.

Permit Refused
"As I take it, we might as well fold up. While the American soldier fought to keep the flag flying, the foreigner did not fight," Mr. Horschler stated.

"Council can go over my head if they want to," the mayor stated. Streets Director James Gibson told Mr. Horschler that, "little money" is realized from a carnival. "I'd prefer seeing you sell a car or hold a tag day."

"The town is over-flooded with cars and chances. We don't want to bother the public. We want to get away from that 'stuff' Mr. Horschler said.

"I'm asking the permit be refused," the mayor said. Messrs. Alexander, Gibson and Hoyland voted against granting a permit. Safety Director Davis was absent from council.

Britain's Plans To Increase Exports To U.S. To Be Told

LONDON, April 12.—(INS)—Britain's plans to increase exports to the United States reportedly will be disclosed today when the House of Commons resumes debate on the budget and the general economic situation.

Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, is expected to outline the strategy to reduce Britain's dollar deficit by exporting more to the dollar area.

Wilson reportedly will announce the establishment of a sales and market research organization to assist in pushing British products beyond the present limited area of New York and the eastern seaboard states.

Appomattox Day Is Observed In City

Ladies Of G.A.R. Have Anniversary Dinner; Orville Potter Main Speaker At Event

On Saturday, at noon, Ladies of the G.A.R. gathered in Malta Hall, East Washington street, for a sumptuous anniversary dinner in observation of Appomattox Day. It was at Appomattox, Va., on April 9, 1865, where Gen. R. E. Lee surrendered to Gen. U. S. Grant, and virtually concluded the Civil War.

Mrs. Minnie Mayers was chair-lady of the occasion, and called upon Mrs. Adria Woods, president of the organization, who extended greetings to all who had come to celebrate this great event.

Orville Potter, county register and recorder, was called upon, and said in part—"I believe it is 84 years since Appomattox. It is an important occasion in the history of this country, in the preservation of the Union, and became a large part in the building of this great nation. There had been disagreements on some matters, and about throwing off the shackles of slavery. I am sorry that more people do not get together to celebrate this event. It was costly, with much loss of life, and suffering, but with victory came much benefit. I am glad to be here, and hope to be able to attend many more."

A letter was read by the chair-lady from Mayor John Haven with greetings to the ladies of the organization, and regretting his inability to be present. A. J. Rees made reference to the important historical occasion, and the manner of securing lasting world peace. Greetings were brought by Mrs. Blanche Lewis of Simon Relief Corps, G.A.R.; Mrs. Mildred Reynolds, department officers of Gold Star Mothers, No. 1; Mrs. Rebecca McKissick, Daughters of Union Veterans; Mrs. Edith Stafford, Relief Corps; Mrs. Florence Hoover, dept. president Relief Corps; Mrs. Sallie Falls Davis, charter member of Ladies of G.A.R.; Mrs. Matt Tripp, treasurer Ladies of G.A.R.; Mrs. Eva Sherry, the oldest daughter present of Union Veteran of Civil War, A. L. Wimer.

The planet, Venus, is scheduled to pass between the earth and the sun on June 8 in the year 2004. People will be able to observe it as a tiny black speck crossing the face of the sun. The last time this occurred was in the year 1882.

Brazilian Woman's Diamond Ring Found
Her 23-Carat $100,000 Diamond Ring Found In Possession Of Two Brazilians
LOS ANGELES, April 12.—(INS)—U. S. Atty. James M. Carter has disclosed that Countess Mariangela Matarazzo of Sao Paulo, Brazil, will get her 23-carat, $100,000 diamond ring back after it had been lost to her for more than two years.

The ring was stolen in Brazil early in 1947 and was found in possession of two Brazilians seized by the U. S. customs agents in Los Angeles in March, 1948.

Subsequently, U. S. Judge J. F. T. O'Connor found the pair guilty of smuggling, fined each $500 and ordered them deported.

The ring is now held by customs officials in Washington, D. C. Carter said it will be turned over to the Brazilian ambassador there for return to Brazil.

Carter said the countess will have to pay costs and expenses directly incidental to the seizure.

E. NEW CASTLE
MISSIONARY MEETING
Mrs. T. C. Watson entertained the Ladies Missionary society of the Grace Bible church Thursday evening. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Addison Davis with hymn singing, Scripture reading and an account of Martha Berry's Mission school and its origin in Kentucky. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Ben Gardner, Mrs. Lester Woods and Mrs. George Fissel.

A white elephant exchange was special feature with the packing of a box to be sent to Mrs. Harvey Ketz of Bob Jones university, Greenville, S. C., a former member of the society, taking place. Special guest was Phyllis Ashton of Fombelle, who aided the hostess in serving a delightful lunch. Mrs. Henry Karki will entertain in May with Mrs. T. C. Watson as leader.

Strike Ties Up Port Of London

LONDON, April 12.—(INS)—The great port of London was paralyzed today by a swift-spreading strike of longshoremen.

Thousands of tons of foodstuffs—including ration-short meat—and cargoes of merchandise of Britain's vital export drive remained piled up on docks and in the holds of over 70 ships tied up by the strike.

The walkout, which began yesterday in a protest against the firing of 33 longshoremen, involved well over 16,000 dockworkers. Many transport workers defied their union leaders and joined the work stoppage.

Wesley Group Will Sponsor Breakfast

Mrs. Charles Bacon presided when the Young Adult group of Wesley Methodist church gathered in the home of Miss Edith Moore, South Lee avenue. Plans were made for an Easter sunrise breakfast at 6:30 o'clock in the church for the whole congregation with the group as sponsor. Devotions were led by Rev. Everett Spring.

Mrs. Samuel Patterson conducted games. Later Mrs. Ethel McConnell aided her sister in serving lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Patterson, Wilmington road, will entertain at their home Friday evening, May 13.

Diphtheria Causes Schools To Close

BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 12.—(INS)—All schools in suburban Fountain Hill were closed until further notice today because of an outbreak of diphtheria.

Fourteen cases have been reported recently in the greater Bethlehem area, and seven of them are in a Fountain Hill hospital.

Two deaths have been attributed to the disease.

The Knights of Columbus will hold their regular meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the club rooms, 349½ East Washington street. At this meeting plans will be completed for the third degree and banquet to be held Sunday, April 24. William J. Howley is the grand knight.

SEEKS SONS MISSING 28 YEARS

CHILDHOOD PHOTOS of her two sons who ran away 28 years ago and have not been heard from since are held by Mrs. Hedwig Missbach, 79, in Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Missbach, a widow and crippled now, has asked police to search again for the brothers, Francis, who ran away at the age of 14, and Edmond, Jr., who disappeared at 16. She said her sons, high school students with outstanding records, never expressed any intention of running away. (International)

Bible Conference At Grace Church

Grace Bible church, East Washington street extension, three blocks from Cascade Park, is in the midst of a Holy Week Bible conference, with Rev. Lehman Strauss of Bristol, Pa., as speaker. Rev. Strauss, an instructor in Philadelphia School of the Bible, is also a Bible conference speaker and author. He will be speaking until Thursday evening.

The services which open at 7:45 each evening are featured by special music, with Kenneth Kerr, saxophonist and Mrs. Melba Clark, vocalist to be presented at this evening's meeting. Friday night, the pastor, Rev. George Fissel, will conduct a communion service. Special features are planned in the church Easter Sunday.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED IN DEATH OF STAGE STAR
SCRANTON, Pa., April 12.—(INS)—Samuel Wolf, executor of the will of the late stage star Beryl Wallace, has filed a $1,000,000 damage suit in federal court in Scranton against United Air Lines, Inc.

The suit was filed in behalf of the estate of Beatrice Helfchiber, the actress' real name.

The estate seeks damages as a result of the airplane crash at Mount Carmel, Pa., on June 17, 1948, in which theatrical producer Earl Carroll, Miss Wallace and 38 other persons were killed. The suit alleges negligence on the part of the airline.

EISENHOWER TO STAY
NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—Columbia University insists that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is its president "for years to come."

Professor Albert C. Jacobs, the university provost, last night declared baseless the reports that Eisenhower is to take a permanent government position.

Eisenhower is now on leave from the university while serving as President Truman's adviser on defense problems.

Enon Presbyterian Plans For Easter

Rev. Robert Bell, pastor of the Enon Presbyterian church, has planned special services for Holy Week concluding on Easter Sunday. Friday evening, at 8 o'clock in the church, preparatory services will be conducted, to be followed by a meeting of the session to consider names for membership.

Easter Sunday, at 11 a. m., the pastor will conduct the service of worship which will include the baptism of infants and adults, reception of new members and communion. The choir will present special music during the service.

Hippocrates, 2,400 years ago, had said that a "wound of the bladder, brain, heart, diaphragm, small intestine, stomach and liver is deadly."

Rev. H. D. Poellot To Be Liturgist Friday

Rev. H. D. Poellot, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, will be a liturgist in the Good Friday Lenten service held during the noon hour at the Warner theater at Youngstown.

The special service has been arranged by Lutheran pastors of the New Castle and Youngstown area.

TIPS ON BUYING HOUSE DRESSES

Always try on a dress before buying it, and be sure to examine the labels, seams and other details before purchasing. A dress in which a woman spends so many working hours is worth a few extra minutes at buying time.

In a study of 46 ready-made cotton house dresses, the price was found to be a poor indication of quality. Homemakers should pay close attention to fit, workmanship and material when choosing a dress that will look attractive, fit comfortably, and wear well.

In trying on the house dress, check for comfortable fit around the hips, bust, and upper arms. Be sure the waistline is at the right place and that the skirt is a becoming length. Check the side seams, which should follow a straight line to the floor. Test for roominess too by reaching arms upward as in getting a cup from a high shelf. And finally, sit down in the dress to check fit in this position.

Slip off the dress to examine construction details, this is an important item. Consult the labels for information on color fastness and shrinkage. It is well to examine the seams, especially for enough width to let out if necessary and for strength of stitching. Laboratory tests of the 46 dresses showed particular weaknesses in the stitching of armhole seams, which broke in two-thirds of the dresses when pulled by hand.

Look at the collars or revers. They should have neat edges and be cut alike on both sides. Almost half of the 46 dresses studied had slightly irregular collars and about two-thirds had noticeably irregular revers. And most of the collarless dresses were finished unevenly.

For longer wearing belt, choose one made of fabric instead of imitation leather. Be sure that buttonholes are evenly spaced on a double thickness of fabric and that buttonhole stitches are close enough for long wearing. Of the 46 dresses studied, 30 of them had from one to 10 defective buttonholes.

Motorists Asked To Ignore Hitch-Hikers

State Motor Club Declares National Wartime Habit Violates State Law

PITTSBURGH, April 12.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Motor Club asked all motorists today to steer clear of hitch-hikers whom the club called "ride-moochers" and violators of the state law.

A club spokesman said it's time to break the national habit acquired during the war when servicemen used that means to get home on furlough. He emphasized that robberies and murders have been taking place too often due to unsuspecting motorists being neighborly.

As a clincher, the spokesman said it's against the law in Pennsylvania to solicit a ride from a stranger.

Hoover Commission Charges Army Lost Much War Materials

Report States That All Three Services Have Prodigious Approach To Costs

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(INS)—A Hoover commission task force report charged bluntly today that the army has lost "vast quantities" of war material since the end of World War II.

The report said all three services—the army, navy and air force—have had a "prodigious approach" to the question of costs.

The Eberstadt report on defense budgeting, made public before the Senate Armed Services Committee, declared that:

1. Army ordnance reported 15,960 tanks on hand, and three weeks later reported that "25,045 gun tanks of all calibers, all chassis types, and all conditions were in the possession of the army at the close of the war." This indicated a "loss" of some 9,000 tanks.

2. The army stated it could equip 18 divisions although at war's end had some 89 fully equipped divisions and "great additional quantities of material in the pipeline." The report stated:

"Disposition of easily replaceable material is readily understood, but loss of complicated, difficult-to-produce military equipment is another matter, especially as the military were put on notice six months after the end of the war as to the seriousness of the international situation."

3. The army's original 1950 budget asked for $108,290,859 for $338,000 tropical worsted uniforms at $125 apiece "enough for all the enlisted men in the army, and then some!"

4. At one point, army budget officers were asking for funds to modernize 102 more tanks than the army possessed, because army ordnance had failed to give it all information.

5. Army requested 529 million dollars to purchase 1,567 M-46 tanks for $337,500 per tank. "Investigation of this item showed that a major part of the money was wanted for retooling the industry to produce tanks, this despite the fact that the ordnance department secured permission from Congress in 1946 to retain the Detroit tank arsenal which cost 48 million dollars to build during the war, and in addition, a large allotment of tools."

6. Since January 1, police added, there have been 171 traffic fatalities on rural roads compared with 180 in a similar period of 1948.

Jap Pleads Guilty To Beheading Airman

YOKOHAMA, April 12.—A former Japanese army officer, Lt. Norifumi Otosu, pleaded guilty Monday to beheading an American B-29 airman during the war.

His plea was entered at the opening of his trial before a U. S. Military Commission in Yokohama. In addition to the murder of the captured B-29 flyer, Otosu admitted he had watched Japanese soldiers practicing archery and swordsmanship on other prisoners of war.

These atrocities were committed, according to the charges filed against Otosu, in order to wreak revenge for the atom bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Cancer Cure Near Claims Boston Man

Bases His Opinion On Progress During Last Half Century In Cancer Fight

BOSTON, April 12.—(INS)—A noted Boston cancer authority believes a cure for the disease is near, basing his opinion on progress during the last half-century in the fight against cancer.

Dr. Channing Chamberlain Simmons, 72, will be awarded a medal and citation today by the Massachusetts division of the American Cancer Society at a luncheon rally in its drive to raise $650,000.

Dr. Simmons said: "Progress in cancer surgery has followed hand in hand with the avenue, will be the scene of the meeting of pilots, students and other civilians when the New Castle District Civil Air Patrol will be reactivated this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Civil Air Patrol Meeting Tonight

The meeting, which is expected to draw more than 100, will see the appointment of 14 staff officers. Further outlining of the program and explanation of the objectives of the organization will be broached.

The air patrol will be on constant duty and will be used in case of flood, storm or any emergency that may arise in the community.

Mrs. Rockefeller Just Gets Checkup

NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—A Rockefeller family spokesman reported on Monday that the condition of Mrs. Winthrop (Bobo) Rockefeller, hospitalized since March 28, is "not serious."

The spokesman said Mrs. Rockefeller had entered New York hospital for a "usual check-up and low basal metabolism (low blood count)," resulting from the birth of a son, Winthrop, Jr., last September 17.

The former Barbara Sears was married to Winthrop Rockefeller in a Valentine's Day ceremony last year.

LONDON.—(INS)—Deflation has hit the frog. The London Zoo, in its annual inventory, now rates specimens in its frog and toad collection at three pence (five cents) each. Last year's value was six pence.

You'll be thankful with every tankful

When you first experience the thrilling performance of this husky, 130-HP Packard Eight, you won't even be thinking about such things as gas mileage.

You'll be marveling instead at its soothing smoothness... and the trigger-quick response of its "safety-sprint" reserve power.

The most pleasant surprise of all comes later—when you've breezed through a few score of restful miles and the fuel-gauge needle seems to be stuck at "Full!"

You'll know then, how Packard's "free-breathing" engine design is writing the year's big thrill news in the fine car field!

Want specific figures? Just take a look at the chart at the right. Then, see your nearby Packard dealer. The sooner the thrifter!

Plans Under Way For Memorial Day

Committee Hope To Make Local Celebration County-Wide Event

DUAL PROGRAM DURING ARRANGED

Memorial Day plans are well under way, it was announced by Emmett Kurtz of the United Spanish War Veterans, general chairman of the celebration. It is hoped to make this year's program a county-wide event, with a memorial program at the county memorial at the court house, followed by a parade to Greenwood cemetery, where ritualistic services will be carried out.

The program will take place on the morning of Memorial Day, it was decided at the meeting of the general committee, held in the Legion Home Monday evening, where representatives of the various veterans organizations gathered to discuss plans for the event.

The cemeteries will be decorated as customarily by the various organizations on the Sunday preceding the celebration, when new flags will be placed on every deceased veteran's grave.

Members of the Gold Star Mothers, who will take an active part in the program, will have charge of securing the speaker for the day.

LOW PRICE SHOES

NEW YORK. (INS)—Figures furnished by the U. S. Department of Commerce for the Popular Price Shoe Show of America indicate that 92 per cent of all footwear purchases in 1949 will be made at less than $10 a pair. The pre-war figure was 95 per cent.

There were 14,280,400 members of unions in the U. S. in 1947, says National Bureau of Economic Research.

Million Dollar Hotel Suit Faces Crosby, Sinatra

Five Investors Claim They Were Frozen Out Of Deal Involving Nevada Hotel

HOLLYWOOD, April 12—(INS)—Crooners Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra faced a million-dollar suit involving a Las Vegas, Nev., hotel venture today.

Five investors charged in superior court that they were frozen out of a deal whereby the Nevada Desert Inn, Inc., was to build a hotel and possibly a race track in the Nevada desert city.

Named as co-defendants of Crosby and Sinatra are 11 other individuals, including Bing's brothers, E. N. and Larry Crosby.

The action charges that Stanley Burke of Sacramento, Calif., president and trustee of the corporation, purchased required land for the venture, but later transferred title to the property to a "dummy."

Sinatra is named on the contention he is now a partner of Burke in a new hotel enterprise known as "The New Horizon," which has under construction at the site of the old Nevada Desert Inn a huge resort project including a hotel and race track.

He is accused of participating in Burke's "wrongful" acts.

The complaint alleges that Bing Crosby was the actual owner of stock held in Nevada Desert Inn by his two brothers.

Bing also is accused of being represented in the "New Horizon" by his brothers, who are described as "dummies" for him.

Two New F.E.P. Measures In State Senate

HARRISBURG, April 12—(INS)—Two new fair employment practices measures today were in the Senate Labor and Industry Committee.

The bills were introduced on the Senate floor last night and in effect diverted attention from a state-wide lobby group which was pressuring legislators for FEP legislation and decrying the secret ballot death of the Frazier-Meade bill.

Sens. Charles R. Mallory (R) Blair and Rowland B. Mahany (R) Crawford sponsored one measure while majority leader John M. Walker (R) Allegheny sponsored another.

Cleveland Woman Confesses Slaying

Confesses Choking Of Four-Year-Old Boy Because She Had 'Urge To Kill'

CLEVELAND, April 12—(INS)—Matrons at Cleveland city jail kept a close watch today over Mrs. Tillie Maschmeier, 64-year-old alleged slayer of a four-year-old boy. The surveillance was ordered by authorities after the housewife reportedly signed a two-page statement in which she "confessed" choking to death little Robert Shaw, a frequent visitor at her home.

Police said Mrs. Maschmeier stated she choked the lad because she had an "urge to kill." She said she felt like killing herself after she had choked the child.

Mrs. Maschmeier allegedly admitted strangling the boy late yesterday afternoon in the living room of her home. She said she had planned the crime while the boy raked leaves in her yard on Sunday. She said she left the house immediately after the crime.

Her husband arrived home a short while later and discovered the boy's body. Mrs. Maschmeier was picked up a few hours after her husband summoned police.

State High Court Asked If Military Record Is Evidence

Counsel Charges Trial Judge Erred
In Allowing Army Record
As Evidence

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—(INS)—The state supreme court was asked to decide whether an ex-GI's record showing his ability as a marksman should have been considered as evidence in the trial of a Nanty-Glo man convicted of shooting his wife.

Counsel for Blair F. Steel charged that the trial judge erred in allowing the veteran's army record as evidence.

Steel was convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the fatal shooting of his wife, Laura, in their home March 20, 1948, although he claimed the shooting was accidental.

Assistant district attorney David C. Wolf countered with the introduction of the army record showing that Steel qualified as a marksman with an "M-1 rifle," demonstrated he was familiar with firearms and could not have accidentally discharged the .22 caliber rifle with which his wife was shot.

Steel's counsel argued that there had been no ill-feeling between the couple and said the lower court judge's charge to the jury was prejudicial in favor of the commonwealth.

The court reserved decision.

Camp Fred L. Rentz Registration Open

Registration for 29th season of the YMCA's Camp Fred L. Rentz is now open, according to Y program director Dave Gatrall.

The popular boys' resort along the Slippery Rock creek has another busy summer in view.

Members of the state-wide Four-H club organization will open the camping season during the first week in July. Four weeks of regular camping for YMCA boys' department members start July 10. The usual rate of $10 per week will prevail again this year.

Members of the boys' clubs from Shenango Pottery and Johnson Bronze take over the regular camping. As usual a week has been designated for the boys from Shenango Y and then the last two weeks of August the senior high school football team takes over.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

The fastest writer on record was the late Edgar Wallace, who kept two competent stenographers busy at the same time. He would dictate all morning to one of them, and after lunch, while she went scurrying off to type the material, he would proceed full-steam on an entirely different book with his other secretary.

"Every time I talk to a taxi driver," he said once, "I come home with the idea for at least one new book." When a lady friend called once to invite him to dinner, his butler is reputed to have answered, "Mr. Wallace has just begun a new mystery story. Won't you hold on until he has finished it?"

On his way to Hollywood, Wallace paused in Chicago long enough to lunch with a newspaperman and learn about the exploits of Cicero gangsters. Aboard "The Chief" he hauled out his typewriter, and by the time he reached Los Angeles he had completed the script of a three-act play called "On the Spot." It ran a solid year in London and made stars of Charles Laughton and Ana May Wong.

Tifereth Israel Passover Services

Orthodox Jewry To Observe Passover Starting Wednesday Evening At Sundown

A model Seder service commemorating the approaching Festival of Passover was conducted for the students of Tifereth Israel Religious school on Sunday morning, April 10, for 10:30 a. m. until noon at the synagogue building. Rabbi Jules Lipschutz, director of education, officiated and discussed the laws, customs and traditions of the Sederim commemorating the holiday of Passover. The assembly participated with responsive readings, liturgical selections and general selections of the Passover book known as the Hagaddah.

General arrangements for the Passover foods and symbols were made by Mrs. Gus Slovinsky, director of dramatics. A prize was awarded Donald Maieron by Nate Land, chairman of the school board, who also extended official greetings in the name of the congregation and school board. Refreshments were tendered by the parents and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bobick.

The school faculty assisting Rabbi Jules Lipschutz at the children's Seder ceremony were Mrs. Gus Slovinsky, Mrs. Archie Rosenberg, Mrs. Herman D. Plant, Mrs. Harry Greenberg, Miss Ann Buntman and Mrs. Louise Kulkin. A special tribute was given by the students in honor of Dr. Chaim Weizman, the Israeli Cabinet and Rabbis Drs. Isaac Halevi Herzog and Ben Zion Meir Uziel of Palestine. A similar prayer and benediction was rendered by Rabbi Jules Lipschutz in honor of the United States of America. The service was concluded with the chanting of the Hallel and benediction. The Passover vacation for classes at the religious school of Tifereth Israel will commence on Wednesday, April 13, and will continue until Sunday, April 24, with the reopening of the Sunday school department at 10 a. m.

Meaning of Passover

Passover, 5709, will commence at at sundown on Wednesday evening, April 13, and will continue for a period of eight days until the evening of Thursday, April 21, of which the first two days, Thursday and Friday, April 14 and 15, and the concluding two days, Wednesday and Thursday, April 20 and 21, are complete holidays; while the intervening four days are known as Chol HaMoed, half-holidays.

Passover is the first of the three pilgrim festivals. It was originally an agricultural festival which marked the early barley harvest in Palestine, when the Jewish farmers from all parts of Eretz Israel would traditionally make a pilgrimage to the temple in Jerusalem to offer sacrifices upon the altar, including an offering of an "Omer," known as a dry measure of barley. It is also known as the "season of our freedom," commemorating Israel's redemption from Egyptian bondage. In Scripture, the feast is designated as "The Feast of Unleavened Bread," (Lev. 23:6), and throughout the eight day period of Passover no leavened or fermented food may be consumed. Special sets of utensils and dishes are used, and matzo or unleavened bread are eaten as a reminder of the Israelites' hurried departure from Egyptian slavery when they had to bake their bread in haste without permitting the dough to rise. Seder means order and procession and refers to the order of the evening services at home and in the synagogues. Regarded as a holy and solemn occasion implying a universal message as the classical festival of liberation and honor for the dignity of man.

A very impressive community Seder will be tendered by the Tifereth Israel Sisterhood and Men's club on Wednesday evening, April 13, at 7:30 p. m. at Tifereth Israel synagogue. Rabbi Jules Lipschutz will officiate and lead the Seder service for all the assembly.

A special pre-Passover service will be held on Wednesday morning, April 13, at 7 a. m. at Tifereth Israel synagogue. Rabbi Lipschutz will conclude a Talmudic tractate in commemoration of the Passover festival. Evening services will be held on Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 6:30 p. m. and Thursday morning and Friday morning, April 14 and 15, at 8 a. m. Rabbi Lipschutz will preach the sermonic discourses for the holidays.

Wampum Methodists Will See Picture

Holy Week observance at First Methodist church, Wampum, will be featured with the showing of "The Passion Play," a moving picture. The film will be shown at the church Wednesday evening, April 13, at 7:30 o'clock.

Pools And Riffles

By The Roving Fisherman

Well, Friday's the day we've been waiting for all winter. Early in the morning, all over the state, an assortment of worms, minnows, flies, streamers and anything else you can name in the way of trout lures, will be dropped into thousands of "favorite holes" on hundreds of favorite streams. The first deluge of food will continue and grow through the morning till the trout will probably feel they are living in a paradise where choice morsels of food literally fall into their mouths.

Some of them will be frightened, so they will shy away from anything. Some will bite and get away, but many trout will be caught before dark Friday night. If we don't get a lot of rain early this week, the streams will be in good shape, and they have been well stocked.

Can't Fish During Night

Remember, fishing is prohibited in any stream stocked with trout from 5 o'clock Thursday evening until 5 o'clock Friday morning. So far as that goes, most fishermen are too good sports to fish in a stocked stream at all till the season opens. It's legal, yes, to fish for suckers—but what do you do if you catch a trout? If you keep it, you are breaking the law and not giving the rest of the fishermen an even break into the bargain. If you let it go—well, you know very well how deeply hooked a trout usually is that has taken a bait that is "still-fished" with a sinker. Many of them die, and there just aren't enough trout these days to waste like that.

Like To Fish

Do you like to get out along a lively stream or a brawling little river? Most of us do, or we'd just stop in a market for our fish. We look forward to the magical weeks when the bursting leaves and flowers transform our favorite streams from the deadness of winter to the beauty of spring. It's swell just to be alive along a mountain brook or a creek winding through a wood-lot or pasture. Nature takes care of the scenery for us, but whether our fishing grounds remain beautiful, or become littered with old lunch wrappers, tin cans, and bottles is entirely up to us. Why not try to be a little thoughtful so that others will be able to enjoy the outdoors too? It's not so tough to put your sandwich wrappers back in your jacket instead of throwing them in the water or down on the bank. Is it? Or, why not take a second to jam your boot heel down into the mud along the stream's edge and then drop the papers in the hole and cover them?

Not Only Factor

The appearance of the streams isn't the only factor to be considered, either. None of us like to see fine stretches of water that are "posted," water that somehow always seems more inviting than that we can fish. The history of such stretches usually reveals thoughtless fishermen who abused the privilege of fishing on another man's property—and it is a privilege. Maybe you don't break down fences or chase cattle, but most people don't like having their pasture littered with old papers, tin cans, and bottles, either. This is especially true where there are cattle.

Why not be a little more considerate, so we may continue to enjoy the privilege of fishing along streams that look as nature intended them to look?

See you Friday Morning! Good fishing!

United Brethren Mark Holy Week

Special Holy Week services are planned this week by the First United Brethren church, 125 North Crawford avenue, when visiting U.B. pastors will be on hand to assist in the program.

Monday evening, Rev. G. H. Conrad and his choir from Franklin, Pa., conducted the program. Tuesday evening, Rev. Glenn Spackey of Highland Heights will speak, Wednesday, Rev. Walter Banks, director of the Wooster, O., Youth for Christ; Thursday, Rev. Harry Galaspy of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Friday evening, Rev. Harold Snyder of the Bethel U. B. church will speak on Christ's last week on earth and will show beautiful colored slides. The service will be climaxed with a beautiful candle-light communion service.

The ferret is still trained to catch rats. The animal derives its name from the Gaelic and ancient Celts, meaning cunning or crafty one.

Symphonic Notes

The flute can produce a great variety of effect. It is used in important melody passages as well as in brilliant, decorative figures; its agility is amazing, its tone almost always discernible in the orchestral fabric. It is capable of exceedingly rapid scale passages.

The flute players with the New Castle Symphony Orchestra are: Lois Burton, principal; Carol Keans, David Elder, Jo Ann Elder.

Pay Increases For Teachers In State Planned

HARRISBURG, April 12.—(INS)—The administration today earmarked a $9,000,000 pay boost for the commonwealth's 61,000 public school teachers.

The House Education committee last night unfolded a program designed to provide $43,000,000 for teachers pay increases during the 1949-51 biennium. The sum represented a $9,000,000 increase over pay boosts to which teachers will be entitled under legislation enacted by the 1947 legislature.

Committee Chairman D. Raymond Sollenberger (R) Blair, said the pay boost would "place Pennsylvania on a competitive basis with surrounding states."

In line with the administration-approved program, all teachers would receive an immediate $200 annual pay hike except those who will receive the maximum-mandated salary next year.

In addition, the present $1950 minimum salary for teachers holding a standard certificate would be boosted to the $2000 level now mandated for teachers with bachelor's degrees.

Annual increments for all teachers except in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia also would be increased from the present $150 to $200. Those holding a standard certificate would receive the automatic pay hike for seven years, while teachers with a bachelor's or master's certificate would be entitled to the increment for nine years. Increments in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia are pegged at $200 a year.

The program also called for increased retirement benefits for approximately 8,100 Pennsylvania teachers whose retirement pay is based on low average annual salaries. Annual retirement benefits would be boosted to $600 for 20 years service, $900 for 30 years and $1200 for 40 years. Part of the retirement program was sent to Gov. James H. Duff last night.

Union Volunteer Firemen Answer
Seventeenth Call To Grass
Fires In Two Weeks

Union Township volunteer fire department received a call at approximately 3:30 p.m. Monday to the A. T. and T. building on Route 224, Youngstown road, where several stored telephones had caught on fire from a bad grass fire.

When firemen arrived on the scene, several of the crooked poles which were stored adjacent to the building were burning badly and it was necessary to use the booster pump to extinguish the blaze which was spreading to the other materials stored in the lot. Several homes in the area were threatened by the menacing fire. Flames at times leaped ten and 12 feet in the air.

The fire was the seventeenth call the Union Department had received in the last week to fight grass fires. The firemen have been able to save surrounding property in every call with loss negligible due to the alertness of the firemen.

"Firsts" in Household Tasks

It's hard for many parents to see in what ways the two-and-three-year-olds can help with household tasks. To be sure, as children grow older, there are many things they can do to lend a helping hand. But how about these youngest ones?

Naturally, one should not expect much in the way of permanent jobs. Emphasis on following through to the finish any job that is started should be postponed until later years. But even the youngest can start on the job of helping. If, as a part of his bathtub play, he helps scrub off the ring of dirt, if he picks up some of the pieces of paper he has scattered, if he puts away one or two of the pots and pans that are being washed, a foundation for later satisfaction in helping is being laid down.

Every effort should be made to have these helping experiences happy ones. One doesn't expect much help. The main job is an educational one. Nothing is more important than to have a feeling of satisfaction center around the "jobs" being done by these smallest helpers.

Former Local Man Is Killed By Auto

J. A. McFall Sr. Dies In Saugerties, N. Y., Hospital Monday Afternoon

Victim of a hit-and-run driver, J. A. McFall, Sr., aged 66 years, of Saugerties, N. Y., a resident here until seven years ago, died in the Saugerties hospital Monday afternoon from injuries received near Saugerties.

Mr. McFall had lived in New Castle for 36 years, where he was employed by the Lehigh Portland Cement Company, and went to Saugerties with the company seven years ago, where he has since resided. He retired from active duty with the company last June.

Mr. McFall's wife died seven years ago. Surviving him are three sons, Donald R. and Henry L. of New Castle; Jerome, Jr., of Medina, O., and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Frank, of this city. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Sara Ann McFall, and a sister, Mrs. Harry Heymann, of Easton, Pa.; 18 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. A daughter Eleanor also preceded him in death five years ago.

The body will be taken to Easton, Pa., where services will be conducted from the Schilling Funeral Home on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with burial at Easton.

Members of the family here left today to attend the services.

Four Accused Of American's Murder On Trial In Greece

Trial For Murder Of American Correspondent Begins In Salonika

SALONIKA, April 12.—(INS)—The trial of four persons accused of the murder of George Polk, American correspondent for the Columbia Broadcasting System, began in Salonika today.

Only two of the defendants were present. They are Gregory Staktopoulos, a Greek journalist, and his mother Anna. The two others, Adam Mousneides and Evangelous Vasvanas, are said to have been killed in the Greek civil war.

According to the indictment, Mousneides fired the shot that killed Polk. The American's body, trussed up with wire, was found floating in the waters of Salonika Bay.

Authorities said after his death that Polk was lured to his murder by being told he was to visit and interview Gen. Vafthiades Markos, former leader of the Greek Communist guerrilla forces who was deposed as rebel chieftain and later reported killed.

Patrick Henry was governor of Virginia five times.

Count Sforza Tells UN Italy Blameless For Il Duce's Errors

Speaks To 58-Nation Political Committee On Question Of Former Colonies

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., April 11.—Italy's Count Carlo Sforza told the United Nations Monday that his country should not bear the blame for Mussolini's Fascist regime.

The bearded Italian diplomat did not mention the former dictator by name. Sforza addressed the 58-nation political committee on the question of the former Italian colonies.

Speaking rapidly in English, Sforza asked that the question of Tripolitania be solved at the same time as Libya. (The U. S. and Britain have said they will wait the assembly's majority opinion on the problem.)

U. N. Trusteeship

Sforza added that Italy is ready to assume responsibility for the proposed return to it of Somaliland under a U. N. trusteeship. He denied that the population of Libya and Somaliland are anti-Italian.

Sforza, making his first appearance at a United Nations Council table, underlined his statement with eloquent gestures. He struck out against the proposed return of Eastern Eritrea to Ethiopia and asked that it be given to Italy under a United Nations trusteeship.

Sforza emphasized to the political committee that Eritrea "never, never" had belonged to Ethiopia. To allow the latter to annex it, he asserted, would be to permit the decay of Eritrean economy.

Peace of World in Danger

In pleading against the partitioning of Libya insofar as Tripolitania is concerned, Sforza reminded the committee that "the peace of the world is still in danger."

He added:

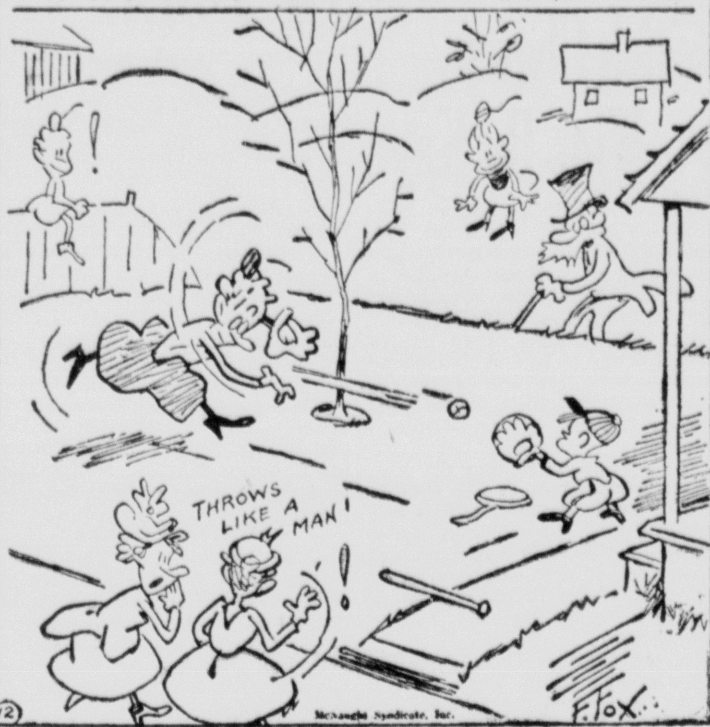

"It is in danger in the world of Jesus just as much as in the world of Allah. Hence we must create the impression that we are inspired by justice and generosity."

The Statute of Liberty, which was France's gift to the United States, was first erected in Paris, then taken apart, shipped to this country, and re-erected on its present site in 1886.

State High Court Rules On Coal Tax

Barred Lawrence Twp. School Board From Levying Taxes On Coal Mined In Twp.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—(INS)—The State Supreme Court on Monday barred Lawrence Township School board from levying a tax of five cents a ton on all coal mined from property in the township by any method.

The high court in an opinion by Justice Marion D. Patterson reversed the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clearfield county. Pearl, Peacock and Kerr, Inc., a corporation, and B. M. DuBois, an individual taxpayer, appealed to the lower court, and a decision against them was brought to the Supreme Court.

The appellants contended the tax was a property tax on "coal mined," and therefore was illegal because a capitol stock tax, and a corporate net income tax is paid to the state as property taxes.

Justice Patterson ruled that "in our opinion, the tax imposed is a property tax," and thus illegal because under the state's "tax-anything law" powers are granted to tax only such things as are not already taxed by the state.

DUTIES OF THE MATRON-OF-HONOR

"Will you please answer the following questions for me? (1) What are the duties of the matron-of-honor? (2) Should I give the bride a separate gift besides the one my husband and I will give? If so, should I suggest to the bridesmaids that we put together for a gift? (3) Am I expected to give a shower for the bride?"

Answer: (1) The matron-of-honor may, if she so desires, give her assistance to the bride's family before the ceremony by helping with the listing of the bride's gifts and arranging them for inspection, giving her suggestions and aid in decorating the house as well as helping with the many other details incidental to the wedding. On the wedding day, she should arrive at the bride's home in sufficient time to assist the bride in getting ready for the wedding.

When the processional is about to begin, she should give the final touches to the bride's train and veil. During the ceremony, she should hold the bride's bouquet, and after the ceremony, she should again arrange the bride's train and veil before the recessional starts.

(2) No, it is not necessary to give a present in addition to the one which you and your husband will give.

(3) Yes, give a shower if it is possible for you to do so.

Question: I am a recent bride and I have been honored with several showers. I would like you to tell me whether or not it is necessary to send thank-you notes to those attending as I expressed my thanks as each gift was opened. In all cases, when a gift was opened and the person was not there, I wrote a short note of thanks.

Answer: While it is not essential to reiterate your thanks in writing when you have already given them verbally, it is a nice gesture and one that is appreciated.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

House Defeats Bill To Bar ERP Aid To The Netherlands

Proposal Would Bar Marshall Plan Aid Because Of Indonesian Situation

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(INS)—The House on Monday overwhelmingly defeated a proposal to bar Marshall Plan aid to the Netherlands because of the Indonesian situation. The vote was 136 to 5. The action came on a proposed amendment by Rep. Javits (R) N. Y., to the bill extending the Marshall plan for a second year and authorizing an additional five and one-half billion dollars in aid.

Passage of the Foreign Aid Bill is expected this afternoon or tomorrow.

The House also rejected, 113 to 72, an amendment designed to strengthen a provision in the bill declaring it to be the policy of the United States to encourage "the unification and federation of Europe."

Rep. Judd (R) Minn., wished to make it clear in the bill's language that Congress favored "the economic unification" and "the political federation" of Europe.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, April 12.—After 12 years of dilly-dallying, the screen story of Rudolph Valentino finally will move before the cameras in June. Producer Edward Small, besieged by 90,000 candidates for the title role, will announce the guy in a few weeks.

Glen Austin, a Los Angeles auto peddler, has the inside track to portray Will Rogers in a forthcoming flicker. He's a dead-ringer for the late humorist. Roy Rogers and his boss, Trigger, will have their footprints immortalized in cement at Grauman's storied Chinese theater next week. Only two other cowboy stars in movie history have chucked their bootprints in the concrete—Tom Mix and William S. Hart, back in 1927.

Reconstruct Scene

Speaking of Grauman's, 20th Century-Fox had to construct an expensive replica of the theater forecourt for a vital scene in "Bandwagon." William Powell portrays a movie star named Emory Slade in the picture. The studio started to film the scene at Grauman's. The only photographic spot was right next to the actual hand and footprints of—William Powell. So that theater audiences wouldn't snicker at the sight of William Powell putting Emory Slade's footprints next to William Powell's, studio workmen reconstructed Grauman's Chinese on the lot.

Got Boyer Started

Rotund Oliver Hardy was responsible for Charles Boyer's screen success. Boyer's initial Hollywood chore was as the voice of the comedian. The great French lover "dubbed" the lingo into French versions of the old Laurel and Hardy slapstickers Janet Gaynor and Hubby Adrian. The designer, write from Africa that their lion-hunting Safari is scaring 'em silly sometimes... Inevitable Marie Windsor, star of Republic's "Hellfire," is now working in "Brimstone"... And Gary Merrill, who portrayed a navy commander in "Slattery's Hurricane," will be an army colonel in "Twelve O'Clock High."

Leaving Hollywood

Lief Erickson is leaving Hollywood for Broadway. Big camera crew will film every play of the opening home baseball game of the Cleveland Indians, and lug the film back to movietown for background scenes of "The Cleveland Story." Cary Grant, back from England, still is 50 pounds underweight and ailing from an attack of Yellow Jaundice. In Columbia's "Woman of Distinction," not a single scene will show any players hoisting a bottle of grog...

Dreams In French

There really is no reason for this report other than to drop a bit of incidental intelligence:

Corinne Calvet, currently making her Hollywood debut with Burt Lancaster in "Rope of Sand," says she dreams in French but thinks in English. She can't quite figure the situation. The petite Parisienne studies English three hours a day and speaks it at home all the time. But when she sleeps her French heritage apparently gets the upper hand.

Edward Cartwright, English clergyman, invented the power loom in 1785.

State Senate Okays Investigation Of Hospital Problem

Inquiry Will Be Carried Out In Interim Between General Assembly Sessions

HARRISBURG, April 12.—(INS)—A between-sessions investigation of hospitals and the "serious problem" of medical care and general welfare was authorized today by the state senate.

The inquiry, proposed by minority leader John H. Dent of Westmoreland and Sen. T. Newell Wood (R) Luzerne, will be carried out by a sub-committee of the joint state government commission in the interim between regular sessions of the General Assembly. The resolution setting up the inquiry was adopted 50-0.

Dent said the investigation would permit the sub-committee to ascertain whether the state was paying more than its share of federal hospitalization and would allow a thorough scrutiny of the hospital outlook.

A report which the JSGC would file with the General Assembly in 1951 would provide a basis for remedial legislation, he added, and allow the "determination of a long range plan aimed at the ultimate solution of this problem."

Dent said the sub-committee would study the number of medical students available, those able to attend graduate medical schools and to determine the number of medical doctors required for minimum services and the part in a medical program which the commonwealth should play.

In addition, investigators will ascertain the amount of space available in hospitals, sanatoria and welfare institutions as well as the determination of future needs. Screening centers, industrial care clinics examinations together with state and local administration of hospitals also would be scanned by the sub-committee, Dent said.

Veterans Auxiliary Installs Officers

Corp. Harry L. McBride Post 522 Auxiliary Has Installation: Plan For Luncheon

Members of the Harry L. McBride Post 522, Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, had their installation of officers recently, at their home on West Grant street. Officers were installed by Mrs. Evelyn Woods, as past department president.

Preceding the meeting, there was an outgoing and incoming of officers ham dinner. The invocation was given by Mrs. Mary Clarke.

Short addresses were made by retiring president Mrs. Georgiana Walsh, and Mrs. Beatrice McNicholas, new president. Response was made by Commander Wendell K. Morrison of Post 522. Address on "World Peace" by Mrs. Evelyn Woods.

Officers installed are—president, Mrs. Beatrice McNicholas; Sr. vice-president, Mrs. Helen Gordon; Jr. vice-president, Mrs. Bess Hallack; treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Davies; chaplain, Mrs. Mayme Black; conductress, Mrs. Mary Koss; guard, Mrs. Bertha Klemast; secretary, Mrs. Mary Clarke; historian, Mrs. Mary Skaggs; assistant, Mrs. Marietta Brown; asst. guard, Mrs. Ethel James; trustee, Mrs. Irene Cagle; color bearers, Mrs. Mary Nicholson, Mrs. Rose Kirkwood, Mrs. Fae Pitzer, Mrs. Vivian Holler; hospital chairman, Mrs. Georgiana Walsh; musician, Mrs. Clara Jameson; legislative chairman, Mrs. Eva Nicholson; rehabilitation chairman, Mrs. Della Miley; Americanism chairman, Mrs. Evelyn Shaffer; junior director, Mrs. Evelyn Woods.

Plans were made for several ladies to take part in the Cancer Drive; also reports were received from the New Castle Hospital auxiliary, that splendid work has been done for the hospitals. Reports were heard from committee on banquet honoring Mrs. Helen Murphy, national president, at the Castleton Hotel, recently; plans have been made for a luncheon for our department president, Mrs. Rachel Montanye, of Huntington Valley, this week.

Highland Church Meeting Wednesday

Yearly congregational meeting of Highland United Presbyterian church will be conducted Wednesday evening, April 13, at 8 o'clock in the church. Elders, trustees and deacons will be elected at that time.

Preceding the business session, a tureen dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock with the Naomi Circle responsible for arrangements.

A candlelight communion service will be conducted in the church Thursday evening, April 14, at 7:45 o'clock.

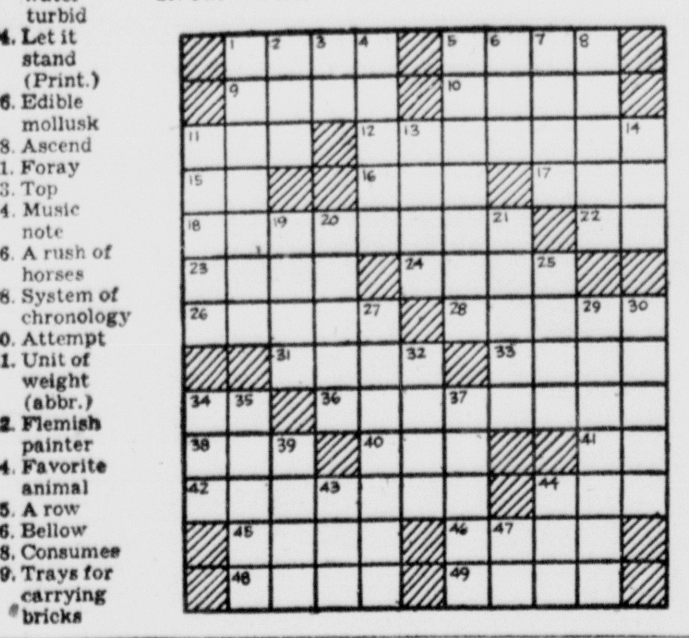

Bandit Holds-Up Clerk Five Times

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—(INS)—The same young man held up the same clerk in the same Western Union office in San Francisco for the fifth time last night. Tevis Mellon, 50, the only clerk on duty, told police that the salo, thin-faced lad in a flashy black and white lumberjack coat came in and pointed at him a nickel plated revolver with which he has become familiar.

This time Mellon handed over $100. The five robberies of the same clerk by the same man at the same place occurred over a period of several months.

Students Picket City College For Second Day In Strike Against Instructors

NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—New York City college students set up picket lines around the college today for the second day in their strike against two instructors they accuse of anti-semitism and racial bias.

The picketing was on a reduced scale, and college spokesmen said attendance at all classes was "back to normal."

Heavy police reinforcements patrolled the campus to forestall any possible recurrence of violence of near-riot proportions which attended the first day's demonstration by 1,500 students.

Night students voted last night 844 to 360 to walk out with the day students.

Seventy-five patrolmen on foot and 10 mounted police arrived on the scene today.

Young Girl Hurt In Long Avenue

Sandra Michaels, age 10, daughter of George Michaels, East Edison avenue, was struck and injured by an auto operated by Patsy Canani, R.D. 1, Monday afternoon, in East Long avenue near Pollock avenue.

The girl was in a group watching a construction gang operate and was said to have become confused, and ran in front of the car. She was taken to the New Castle hospital and treated for brush burns of the face and leg. The girl is in the hospital.

NARROW ESCAPE

KENYA COLONY, East Africa.—(INS)—Famed Tenor Lauritz Melchior had a narrow escape on his big game hunting expedition when a buffalo charged him. Nine shots from Melchior's gun stopped the wild animal ten feet from the tenor.

Traffic deaths in the United States have declined from about 20 per cent 100,000,000 motor vehicle miles in 1925 to less than 10 in 1946.

One Window Broken, Another Damaged

Large window in Dunn's shoe store, East Washington street, was broken last night, by boys, according to the proprietor's report to police.

Policeman Goodman also found the Richman store window cracked. Lieutenant Jones and Patrolman Sigler believe a glass-cutter was used to damage the Richman window.

Owner Tom Yawkey Seems Confident Red Sox Will Be In 1949 Series

By BILL CORUM
(International News Service Sports Writer.)
NEW YORK, April 12.—(INS)—“Ol’ Howson,” Tom Yawkey was saying, “has looked pretty good this spring. Maybe we’ll have some pretty good pitching, too.”

You know who Tom Yawkey is, of course. He’s the fellow who put the beans in Boston.

When Yawkey mentioned “Ol’ Howson,” he was referring to Tex Hughson, the Boston pitcher whose arm went dead a year ago.

Somebody just had been saying that the Yankee pitching looked promising this early spring, and the Boston owner was allowing that the Sox might do all right in that department, too.

Williams Pretty Good

“Don’t forget,” said Tom, “that we had to come from eleven and a half games out of first place in mid-summer to wind up in a dead-end last year. We didn’t do that with hitting alone. You have to look at the league’s pitching figures for last year to see that.”

“Still, I figure that fellow we have named Williams will hit pretty good again this year, and some of our other young men along with him. And I don’t think we’ll do a nose-dive right off the springboard at the start either.”

To me his arguments sounded entirely logical, especially the part about the Sox not spotting the Indians, Yankees, Tigers or anybody else any such terrific lead as they did a year ago.

Picked Sox To Win

It may be that I was in a mood to be easily persuaded. It isn’t often that I make a selection in sports and then have the pleasure of sitting down at a table with four people who agree with it a hundred percent.

However, I had stabbed at Boston to win the pennant in the Harridge hoop this year, and so found Mr. and Mrs. Yawkey and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cronin right in there swinging a towel in my corner from the start.

Big Hearted

“Don’t get stuck for World’s Series tickets, Bill, old boy,” interjected Yawkey. “In Boston we take care of our friends. Bring Topping and Weiss and Veeck and any of the other boys up with you when you come.”

Which would seem to just about settle that pennant race. Still, there probably will be demands in certain quarters to have the schedule played through, as usual.

EAGLES TEAM WILL WORKOUT WEDNESDAY

Members of the Eagles baseball team of the American Junior League will have a workout at the Deshon Annex field at 5 o’clock Wednesday evening. It was announced today by manager Joe O’Leary. All members are to be prompt in reporting.

Daily Announces League Umpires

Four Newcomers Will Umpire In Middle-Atlantic League This Summer

EBENSBURG, Pa., April 12.—President Elmer M. Daily, starting his 25th consecutive year as president of the oldest class “C” league in organized baseball, today announced his complete umpiring staff for the 1949 campaign.

Eight play-calls complete the new staff, with three arbiters from the 1948 staff being retained. Eugene Runser, a member of the umpiring group in 1947, has also been signed to a 1949 contract.

The 1948 members to be retained are Paul O. Smith, Monaca, Pa.; Jimmy Woods, New Jersey, and Stan Landes of New York City.

Four New Umps

The four newcomers, culled from major league umpires schools in Florida, are Al Smith, former American league post-warder who hurled for the Cleveland Indians, Yankees and White Sox, of Webster Grove, Mo.; Hoodzow of Rahway, N. J.; Paul Masluk, Youngstown, O., and David Schreiber of New York City.

At the same time Daily stated that Larry Napp, a member of the 1948 staff, has been sold to the International league and would start the season calling plays in Frank Shaughnessy’s triple “A” loop.

Of the new umpires in the Middle Atlantic league this year Smith and Hoodzow will be making their professional debut, while Masluk comes from the Georgia State league and Schreiber advances to the M. A. from the Tobacco State loop.

TOLES-MURRAY MEET TONIGHT

DETROIT, April 12.—(INS)—Roscoe Toles, Detroit heavyweight, faces Lee Q. Murray of South Norwalk, Conn., in the 10-round main event on the Arena Gardens fight cards in Detroit tonight.

Murray, a stiff right hand puncher with more than two score knockouts to his credit, will be a slight favorite.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

SENATOR EVAN KEPHART, R, Philadelphia, has introduced in the state senate a measure, known as Bill 669, conferring on the joint state government commission, the power to supervise and regulate all commissions, administrative boards, departments and other agencies of the Commonwealth, except political subdivisions, writes Carl A. Rogan, I. N. S. sportswriter of Pittsburgh. He says, this means the fish and game commissions are included, and adds that, if passed, this measure would dump the entire fish and game commissions managerial status into the politicians laps. Boiling it down to plain facts, he explains, it means that the joint government commission will appoint one of its members to sit on the Game commission, and the Fish commission, with power to supervise and regulate the commissions. This, he points out, would put both organizations under political control. It would give the one man on each of the commissions, the power to say what seasons would be established, amount of money that will be spent on Game and Fish management, including the stocking of Game and Fish management, land improvement and other decisions. The Game commission now consists of eight members, and the Fish commission of seven members, and the commissioner of fisheries who is responsible to the governor. The state government has the power to investigate the commissions whenever it deems necessary. In fact, it has, and each time found nothing wrong with either. He says the Game commission did not get to the top of the list in game matters last year for nothing, nor would it rank among the ten leading states in fishing matters unless it had sound programs. Rogan says the people elected legislators to make laws, not to police and enforce them. He points out that under such an act, anything the commission does, can be nullified at any time. It is tantamount to one man rules. He adds that if either Bills 669 or 750 pass, and become law, sportsmen may as well hang up their rods and guns. They will make nice museum pieces, and in years to come, they can tell their offsprings how it used to be, once upon a time. Rogan advises sportsmen to write their opposition to Governor James H. Duff. The Federation of Sportsmen opposes the measures, but it cannot do it all. Bill 750 already has passed the house and is awaiting passage in the senate. Bill 669 has passed the senate, and is in the house for approval. The time to act is now, Rogan says, hence he advises sportsmen to communicate with their representative, or direct their opposition to the governor.

Fish Protector Clinton B. White today warned fishermen not to fish on trout streams, between 5 p. m. April 14 and five a. m. April 15, when the trout season will be ushered in. “A force of deputies will patrol streams, and anyone caught fishing, will be prosecuted, and upon conviction, will be fined” White stated. Mr. White said that, approximately 25,000 trout, all of legal size, have been stocked in Taylor Run, Slippery Rock, Big Run, Deer Creek and the Little Neshannock. Twelve thousand trout were put in the Slippery Rock. Mr. White recently returned from addressing prospective wardens of game at a state training school. He explained matters pertaining to fish. Relative to the discoloration in Hickory Creek, he said, it was learned there was a pipe leading from a pond in the rear of a Bessemer plant. Until the discoloration occurred, it was not known the pipe was there. The plant had a permit to eliminate poison from acid. After the elimination occurred the water was run into the pond, in which there was a pipe, allowed the water to flow into Hickory Creek. He said that no acid entered Hickory Creek and, from what he learned, no fish had been killed. Inasmuch as the plant had a permit to operate the acid-removing plant, it was not fined by the state.

Walzack Loses Bout To Abrams

(By International News Service)

Marcel Cerdan seems to be the only French boxer who has any luck in the United States.

Robert Villmain got a bad beating and later a bad decision. And last night at New York’s St. Nicholas Arena, Jean Walzack, French welterweight champion, was beaten by Frankie Abrams, a Detroit veteran who supposedly was washed up.

Abrams won a unanimous 10-round decision. This spectacular upset marked Walzack’s first defeat in the United States.

WILL STAGE WORKOUT

The Walmo Market baseball team of the American Legion Junior league will have a workout at the Washington field at 6 o’clock Wednesday night, it was announced today.

Hershey Bears Scent Victory

HERSHEY, Pa., April 12.—(INS)

—The pennant-scenting Hershey Bears meet the Providence Reds in the Sports Arena in the fourth playoff for the Calder Cup and the championship of the American Hockey League.

The Bears have a 2-1 edge in the best of seven series. They have defeated the Reds 6-1 and 5-2 and lost 5-3.

Heavy Sugar
Winner of the championship series will take down $14,000 for players while the men on the runner-up team will share $10,000.

Both clubs are playing aggressive hockey. Gordie Bruce, of the Bears, is leading his teammates with five goals and seven assists for 12 points, only one assist and one point better than the runner up, Arnie Kullman.

For the Reds, Roger Bedard and Jackie Hamilton are tied for honors with nine points each.

WILL HAVE WORKOUT

The Third U.P. softball team will have a workout at the Rose avenue field at 6 o’clock tonight for all of the 1948 players and any others who are intending to try out.

Syracuse has played Western Conference opponents 19 times in football, winning seven contests and tying another.

SHORT SPORTS

Gavilan and Robinson would draw a ton of money into any arena and everybody is ready for the match, except possibly Robinson, who indicates a preference for capitalizing on his title by taking on the humpty-dumpties in over-the-weight bouts.

Jim Foley, fullback and quarterback on the Syracuse football team is a brother of John Foley, who called the plays for the Orange last fall.

GAVILAN VS. PRIEST

The Tournament of Champions announces that Cuba’s Kid Gavilan will meet Al (Red) Priest, Cambridge, Mass. middleweight, in a 10-round bout in Boston April 23.

New Castle Nats Start Intensive Spring Training

Opening Game Here On Monday April 25

Flanked by ten Cuban stars, sent here by Joe Cambria, from Havana, playing-manager William "Billy" Mongiello today inaugurated the New Castle Nats spring training grind at P. J. Flaherty Memorial Field.

Owing to the brilliant spring weather, and the fine condition of the field, Mongiello decided to open the training a day ahead of schedule. The pitchers and catchers had been ordered to report here for training on Wednesday, April 13.

Pitchers Due In

It is likely that pitchers Chuck Henry, Herb Churchill and Mike Giardullo will arrive here sometime today and will start workouts tomorrow. Another hurler—Stanley Zedalis, is also headed for New Castle.

The opening game here, an exhibition affair with Wellsville, N. Y. is less than two weeks away—Monday, April 25th.

Mario Varona Is Big

Here is the data on the ten Cuban stars sent here for try-outs:

Mario Varona—6 feet 4 inches, weighs 210, first baseman, batted .311 last year in Cuba, hit 14 homers, a switch hitter.

Tomas Valdes—5 feet 7 inches, weighs 150 pounds, a third baseman or shortstop.

Rafael Codinaeh—5 feet 11 inches, 145 pounds, a rookie pitcher.

Gilbert Varona—5 feet 10 inches, 14 pounds, first baseman, (no relation to Mario Varona), a rookie.

Armed Traspuesto—5 feet 11 inches, 170 pounds, veteran, with Big Springs, Texas, last year, hit .297, a catcher.

Luis Garcia—6 feet 1/2 inch, weighs 158 pounds, a second baseman, a rookie.

Julian Torres—5 feet 10 inches, 170 pounds, third baseman, a rookie.

Rizoberto Gonzalez—6 feet 15 inch, weighs 172 pounds, a veteran catcher, played with Roanoke Rapids, N. C., last year. Hit .328.

Eligio Barberia—6 feet 1 inch, weighs 180 pounds, a rookie.

Sergio Aguilar—5 feet 7 inches, weighs 145 pounds, a rookie.

In Fine Condition

All of the Cubans reporting here have been playing baseball most of the winter in Havana and are in fine physical shape.

Mongiello said that Hagerstown, Md., is sending in two more pitchers today. He also announced

Archie Moore Kayos Bivins

TOLEDO, O., April 12.—(INS)—Archie Moore, scrappy Toledo mittman, moved up another notch today in his battle for both heavyweight and lightweight boxing honors.

The 172-pound larruper fashioned his sixth consecutive knockout last night in Toledo by kayoing Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland, a ranking heavyweight contender, at 2:04 of the eighth round of their scheduled 10-heat bout.

Moore dropped Jimmy with a short right for a count of eight before applying the finisher.

Bivins had battled his lighter opponent on fairly even terms until the fifth round when Moore took charge.

DERBY ELIGIBLES BEATEN

Four Kentucky Derby eligibles bit the dust in the Chesapeake trial at Havre De Grace, Comodore Lea finished third, but Roman Way, Full Speed and Ocean Drive, a stablemate of Olympia, finished out of the money.

The race was won by the Pincher, who has been nominated for the Belmont stakes but not for the Derby or the Preakness.

Lyons And Pozza Fight Wednesday

Peaks, Izzo, Higgins, Vickers, Walls, Bailey, Marlin and Bassett On Card

With two weeks of hard training behind them, Jackie Lyons of Oklahoma City and Billy Pozza of Ellwood City, reportedly in the pink of condition, are resting until they meet in an eight-round boxing bout Wednesday night in The Arena.

Lyons sparred with Lee Sala, the sensational Donora middleweight, to get his condition, while Pozza trained like a Trojan in Johnny Luccisano's gymnasium in Ellwood City.

Jackie has had more professional ring experience than the Ellwoodian, but he is said to be slightly less a puncher than Pozza, whose right when it lands on the chin usually spells a knockout.

According to advance reports, Lyons is expected to weigh several pounds more than the vicious punching Pozza, who believes his dash and fire will take away Lyons' edge in experience.

Five New Faces

The Duke Peaks-Johnny Izzo six round re-fight is expected to be a hurricane affray. The last time they fought they struggled every second and at the end a draw decision was voted.

Chuck Higgins, possibly the best fighter in this district, will take on Marty Martin of Cleveland in a six-round at 160 pounds. Marlin will be making his first bow here.

Drexel Vickers, a busy-body of East Liverpool, will box Buddy Walls of Sharpsburg in a four, at 145, and Andy Bailey, heavyweight slugger of Ellwood City, will swap punches with Ray Bassett of Sharpsburg.

The first fight will begin at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday with the Jefferson A. C. as promoter.

Union Jr. Sportsmen To Convene Tonight

Union Township Junior sportsmen will meet tonight. Flycatchers and others who intend to compete in the fly casting events next week will report at the football field at 7:30 p. m. Plans for the completion of the rifle range and formation of a baseball team will be discussed.

Through the courtesy of Don Kerr motion pictures of the 1948 world series will be shown. There will also be films of fishing thrills, the Olympic games and sports shorts.

Following the pictures there will be a discussion concerning the opening of trout season.

The meeting is open to the public.

Boosters Meet At Hotel Tonight

There will be a Boosters meeting at the Castleton Hotel tonight for those on the various banquet committees. The meeting is called for 7:30 o'clock. Willima G. Sands, general chairman of the banquet will conduct the meeting.

The baseball banquet to greet the New Castle Nats will be held at the Cathedral Thursday evening April 28th, at 7 o'clock.

Sylvan Course In Good Shape

Golf is in full sway at Sylvan Heights course today, where golfers for two weeks have been teeing off.

The greens have been cut and the fairways rolled.

Manager Samuel Haycock anticipates a busy season, and reports that the turf is now in good condition.

Softball League Meeting Tonight

There will be an important meeting at the Y tonight at 7:30 o'clock of all softball league managers and officials, with President Rocco P. Viggiano in charge.

All managers are asked to have their franchise money ready for the meeting tonight. It may be a ten team league this year, it was indicated.

SOUTH SIDE PRACTICE

First practice for the South Side team of the American Legion league will be held at six o'clock Wednesday evening on Booker T. Washington field. Manager Campbell wants all signed players, and any others desirous of a try-out to be present. The team will be uniformed this season.

TEMPS AT SHARON

The Tempy's Beach basketball team will go to Sharon Buhl Center floor Wednesday night to play a second round tourney game with the winner of the Ashtabula-Rocky Grove game. The game starts at 10:45 o'clock. The Temps drew a first round bye.

Batboy Contest Being Extended

Owing to so few entries being received to date, the batboy contest will be extended through Saturday, April 16, it was announced today.

Address all letters 100 words or less on subject "Why I Want To Be A Batboy" to Batboy Editor Charles P. "Bugs" Walther, New Castle News Sports Department. You must be 12 years old and not more than 16.

The boy selected will be the batboy for the New Castle Nats this summer for their Mid-Atlantic league games at Flaherty Memorial Field.

First Basemen Plenty Scarce

(By International News Service)

There is such an acute shortage of good first basemen in the major leagues this season that two outfielders—Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals and Tommy Henrich of the New York Yankees—may have to be pressed into service at the initial sack before the campaign is long under way.

Some of the clubs who are weak at first base might have used Boston's Ray Sanders because the Braves have Earl Torgeson as a regular for that position, but physicians announced yesterday that Sanders will not be able to play until June because of a wrist fracture.

Indians Beat Giants

The National league champions suffered a further misfortune when they lost to Baltimore, 3 to 2. Cleveland's Indians took a 6-4 lead in their tour with the Giants by trouncing the New Yorkers 9 to 3.

Paul Hinrichs, the $50,000 bonus beauty, pitched and batted well for the Yankees as the New Yorkers downed Dallas, 9 to 6.

Other scores included: Reds 11, Montgomery 0; Tigers 8, Memphis 8; and Browns 11, Wichita Falls 3.

Phil Tiratto Limits Mt. Jackson Nine To One Bingle In Opening Contest

Bessemer High baseball team defeated Mt. Jackson 8 to 1 Monday afternoon at Bessemer in the first league game for each school.

Phil Tiratto gave up only one hit and coasted through as his mates scored at least once in every inning from the third on.

Cracraft led Bessemer's six-hit attack on Wayne Emery with a triple and a single.

Starts Fourth Year . . .

Mongiello Oldest Manager In Point Of M-A Service

William "Billy" Mongiello, the New Castle Nats playing-manager, will be the oldest manager in point of service in the league this year. The popular Billy will be starting his fourth Mid-Atlantic managerial job.

Mongiello served as manager at Niagara Falls in 1946, was traded to Uniontown in 1947, where he managed for two years, 1947 and 1948, finishing third last year.

Two of the Mid-Atlantic League managers will be starting their second year—Otto Denning of the Oil City Refiners and Roy Nichols at Johnstown. Other team managers this year are: Erie, Peter Pavich; Butler, Robert Engle; Youngstown, Eddie Morgan; Vandergrift, George Savino; Uniontown, Wes Griffin.

Attended College

After leaving the Yankees as batboy in 1934, Mongiello enrolled at Roanoke college, Virginia, where he played baseball, basketball and football for four years. After graduating at Roanoke he was signed by Danville in the Virginia Bi-State League, where he batted .336 in 1938 and pitched third base, having been a shortstop in college, and in 1939 with Danville hit .360. He was named all-league third baseman at Danville in 1939.

The summer of 1940 found Mongiello at Canton in the Mid-Atlantic league at that time, midway in the season he was optioned to Centerville in the Eastern Shore League. He was recalled by Canton after hitting .354 with Centerville and released to Erie in 1941. He was named all-league at third for Erie and recently was named by an Erie sports writer to the All-Time Erie team as third baseman.

13 Months Overseas

In June of 1942, while with Erie,

Mongiello enlisted in the Coast Guards and served until November of 1945, when he was honorably discharged. Mongiello served 13 months overseas in the Pacific as a radioman on board an LST.

Upon his discharge he signed with Niagara Falls in the spring of 1946 and midway in the season in June took over as manager. He was at third and pitched for the Falls team. Niagara finished in fourth place.

Wants Championship

In 1947 he was sold to Uniontown to become manager and when he took over the team was in eighth place and finished in seventh. Last year he finished third place with the Coal Barons.

Mongiello likes a running ball club—his Uniontown club last year stole 113 bases.

Mongiello is hoping to bring the 1949 Mid-Atlantic League championship to New Castle. He may do it, too!
